Welcome to Big English!

This new edition of Big English builds on the firm foundations and big ideas of the first edition but brings a whole host of new features and components to help young learners make progress and communicate confidently.

Why Big English?

Learning happens in context, not in isolation.

We believe that learners are best motivated by intriguing content that is relevant to their lives and puts English in the context of the world that surrounds them.

Three big ideas that build on established and proven methodologies.

Three of the central bases for the Big English program philosophy are: 21st century skills, Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL), and Assessment for Learning (AfL) techniques.

Multiple experiences all in one book.

Kids learn best when they engage with the language in a variety of ways. Big English provides multiple and varied opportunities for success, including singing, role-playing, watching videos, reading fiction and nonfiction texts, project work, and conducting research.

It's a digital world.

Today's students are digital natives who have never known a world without computers and the Internet. Big English comes with new digital learning tools, the use of which reflect learners' reality and expectations.

So what's new in Big English?

New components and features to engage your learners.

- A completely new digital offering which includes teacher digital resources with the Teacher Presentation Tool, and student digital resources with assignable interactive activities.
- New content including welcome units to bridge any gaps between the levels and serve as a quick review to the previous level, giving the pupils the foundations and confidence to start the next level.
- New Content Connection and Culture Connection pages.
- Additional Big TV videos supported by a video workbook.
- Big English has a fresh new look with a simplified design which helps learners to focus on content and the activities. Plus we have great new signposting to help you really get the most of all the Big components.
- A refreshed approach to Assessment for Learning with students and teachers given plenty of opportunities to review their progress in both the Student's Book and the Workbook.

Global Scale of English

At the start of every unit you also get an overview of the GSE reading, listening, speaking, and writing objectives covered by the content of that unit. End of unit I can statements directly relate to the vocabulary, grammar, and skill descriptors within the Global Scale of English. They appear in the review sections of the Student's Book and are also highlighted in the unit openers of the Teacher's Edition.

The Global Scale of English (GSE) is a standardized, granular scale which measures English language proficiency. Unlike some other frameworks which describe attainment in broad bands, the GSE identifies what a learner can do at each point on the scale across speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. The scale is designed to motivate learners by giving more granular insight into learning progress.

The badging on the back of your coursebook shows the range of objectives that are covered within the content. Knowing this range helps you select materials with the right level of support and challenge for your students to help them progress. It does not mean that students need to have mastered all objectives below the range before starting the course, or that they will all be at the top of the range by the end.

For more information about how using the GSE can support your planning and teaching, your assessment of your learners, and in selecting or creating additional materials to supplement your core program, please go to www.english.com/gse.

BIG ENGLISH

Course Pedagogy

Big English is based on a number of pedagogical approaches which are critical to effective learning. These are all explained below, along with examples of how to deliver successful lessons using the course.

21st Century Skills

What are 21st century skills?

21st century skills are the skills and competencies that learners need to be successful in the increasingly complex life and work environment of today's rapidly changing, digital world. These skills include critical thinking, communication, collaboration, creativity and innovation, and social and cross-cultural interaction.

Big English combines rich, real-life content, a variety of tasks, and specific teaching guidance to ensure ample coverage of these skills.

Why are 21st century skills important?

It is important that students are encouraged and motivated to think deeply about issues, to develop critical thinking skills and to solve problems creatively. These skills paired with a communicative approach provide a foundation that learners can build on throughout their studies.

How do I use 21st century skills whilst teaching with Big English?

21st century skills are embedded throughout Big English. You will find clearly sign-posted sections in the teaching notes to show you how to best enhance 21st century skills on a regular basis.

A key element of our approach to support critical thinking is the regular Think BIG feature which is included in all units and which is integrated across all components. The Think BIG feature offers young learners the opportunity to discuss, analyze, collaborate, and be creative. The Teacher's Edition includes detailed guidance on how to manage the Think BIG questions, as well as set up other communicative, collaborative, or creative tasks, such as projects.

An important method to embedding this approach into your teaching is questioning. In order to develop analytical skills, questions in class should be, as much as possible, open-ended. For example, rather than "Do you want to be a doctor?", you can ask "What do you want to be?" and, critically, "Why?". Even if the students cannot answer open-ended questions fully in English, any attempt should be praised.

Think BIG

21st Century Critical Thinking

- Read the question aloud as students follow in their books. Have students discuss the question as a class or in small groups or pairs. Encourage them to respond in English using words learned previously and in this lesson, e.g. We use our muscles the most when we dance, play basketball and ride a bike.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned about muscles and bones in the body.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly asking them to talk about the different parts of the body and which activities use our muscles the most.

Which activities use our muscles the most?

dancing using a computer watching movies playing basketball riding a bike

Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL)

What is CLIL?

Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) is an approach where the students are learning a subject, for example math, science, or art through the medium of English. This helps deepen their understanding of both the curriculum material and the English language. This enhanced comprehension places them far beyond where they would be by studying only non-academic, everyday English.

The CLIL lessons in Big English help increase learners' motivation and confidence in their acquisition of key language and expand their content knowledge.

Why is CLIL important?

Learning other subjects through English gives students a reason to learn – to understand and discuss the subject matter. This is motivating for young learners.

By teaching relevant subjects that reflect the world around them, for example science, students are likely to become more engaged and curious about the world in general, and about the English they need to describe it.

CLIL also includes learning about other cultures, which provides insights into how people around the world have similarities and differences and helps to develop global citizens.

How do I use CLIL whilst teaching with Big English?

CLIL lessons appear in every unit of Big English. The learning objective of these Content Connection and Culture Connection lessons are clearly signposted on the Student's Book page. This is shared with the class at the start of each lesson.

Key content words can be pre-taught prior to listening or reading the presentation text. These are extra words that might be useful when discussing the text rather than being key vocabulary items.

Subject material is presented through listening and/or reading activities, which is followed by spoken and/or written practice of the content, including using some of the key vocabulary.

Workbook practice activities are provided for these lessons which can be carried out in or out of class, and which further reinforce the concepts and key language.

There is always a Think BIG feature included in these lessons – a question or activity which encourages learners to think deeply about the content.

Each unit also includes an engaging video for either the Content Connection or Culture Connection lesson which brings the subject to life. To support the teacher, there is a Video Guide which contains pre-, while, and post-watching activities.

Content Connection | Science

I will learn about healthy and unhealthy food.

14 Look at the pictures. Which snacks can you name?

15 Look, listen, and read. Then circle.

Healthy and Unhealthy Snacks

Healthy food is good for our body. Some snacks are healthy, but others are not. Unhealthy snacks have too much sugar, fat, or salt.

Sugar

1 Sugar gives us energy, but too much sugar is not healthy. Sugar is bad for our teeth and can make us fatter. Candy has a lot of sugar.

Fat

2 Like sugar, fat gives us energy. When we eat too much of it, it stays in our body and makes us fatter. It is not good for our heart. Chocolate has a lot of fat.

Salt

3 Salt doesn't make us fatter, but too much of it can give us heart disease. Potato chips have a lot of salt.

Assessment for Learning

What is Assessment for Learning?

As opposed to traditional, summative assessment tools that measure what has been learnt, formative assessment or Assessment for Learning takes a different approach. It is based on three key principles: having students participate in setting learning objectives, performing ongoing assessment, and helping students to learn how to set their own goals and self-assess.

Using this approach, the ongoing assessment that a teacher makes informs the teaching of the next lesson or module to ensure all students, whatever their starting point, make clear progress.

Why is Assessment for Learning important?

When Assessment for Learning strategies are integrated in the lesson, students take an active role in their own learning and seek out help they need to meet their goals.

Assessment for Learning can include a variety of activities, for example classroom discussions, peer or group work, homework, and traditional quizzes. The important thing to remember about formative assessment is that the method of assessment is not what makes it useful, but the way in which the results are used. Formative assessment is most successful when results are analyzed to determine the current state of student understanding. Results are folded into the classroom experience as teachers take specific actions to improve any deficiencies or correct misunderstandings.

Another key aspect of formative assessment is sharing clear targets with the class. Discussing learning objectives at the start of the lesson helps students to focus. Reviewing these objectives at the end starts to develop self-awareness of the progress they are making, and what they need to do to improve.

Performing ongoing assessment means that gaps in learning are filled early, so that every child reaches their full potential. Training young learners to set their own goals and be aware of progress develops reflective learners, which is a quality of paramount importance for their later studies.

How do I use Assessment for Learning whilst teaching with Big English?

Assessment for Learning techniques are embedded in all lessons in Big English. Lesson objectives are given on every page in the Student's Book, focusing learners on the learning goal at the start and end of every lesson.

A self-assessment feature is built into each Review lesson at the end of each unit. This requires students to think about the key learning objectives of the unit, and to what extent they have met them. This raises awareness about their own progress. It is also a useful tool for the teacher to gauge who has any learning gaps that need to be filled.

In addition to that, every Checkpoint section (after every three units) contains both self-assessment and peer assessment, further developing awareness of the students' own progress.

The Teacher's Edition is a rich resource for embedding Assessment for Learning into your lessons, and follows a clearly signposted process through all teaching notes.

INVOLVE

This feature provides opportunities to engage students in the learning objective and help them to develop self-awareness of their English progress.

MONITOR

This feature creates opportunities to assess how well students are learning the material and identify gaps to inform teaching.

ASSIST

This feature provides guidance to immediately resolve a gap in learning that has been identified. For example, through presenting the material in another context.

CHALLENGE

This feature goes beyond the page by getting students to personalize, analyze, and apply the language. This is often a more productive task requiring greater fluency. It can be given to a group of students or a whole class.

This process aims to help teachers to see which students need more of a challenge and which ones need remediation in order to keep all learners progressing appropriately.

Systematic Vocabulary Development

What is systematic vocabulary development?

Systematic vocabulary development means explicitly presenting the key vocabulary; teaching the form, meaning, and pronunciation of the word so that students understand all aspects of a target word or phrase; giving students multiple opportunities to encounter the word, to make it memorable and meaningful.

Why is systematic vocabulary development important?

Presenting and practicing vocabulary in a systematic way gives students exposure to the right amount of new vocabulary in any one lesson, preventing overload. Knowing a small number of words at a time, and knowing them well engenders motivation in learners.

Careful scaffolding through visuals and audio support means that young learners feel secure and confident in the early stages of learning.

How do I teach vocabulary in a systematic way with Big English?

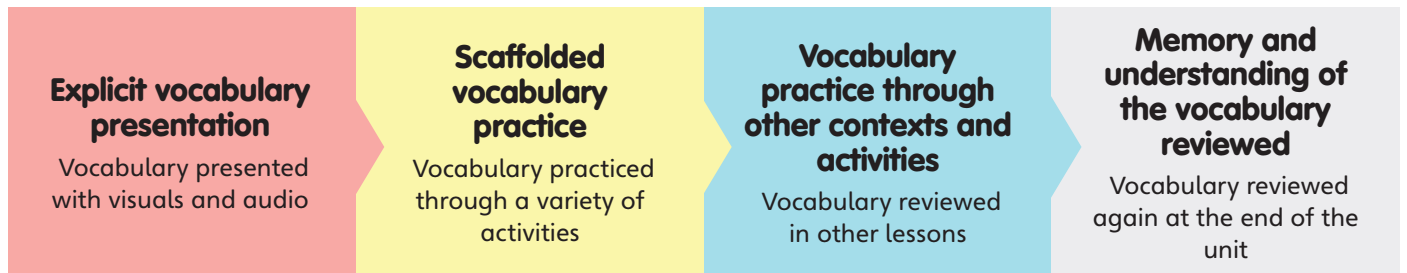

In Big English, the Vocabulary lessons always start with sharing the lesson objective with the class and reminding students what they already know about the topic.

Then, new vocabulary items are introduced through a song, then presented individually with audio and visuals. New vocabulary can be presented or reinforced with Flashcards at any stage of the lesson.

The vocabulary is practiced using a variety of skills – through listening, speaking, reading, and writing in the Student's Book and Workbook. Engaging practice activities are carefully scaffolded to ensure that children feel secure in learning the target words. Activity types include games, matching, drawing, acting out, choosing, etc.

Extra practice is provided in the Workbook, a flexible component which gives students an opportunity to reinforce the new language in class or at home.

Key vocabulary is also recycled throughout the unit in the Story and Review lessons and the Checkpoint sections, providing a wealth of practice. This results in increased exposure to the target language, developing familiarity and mastery of the language.

8 Wild Animals

Vocabulary

I will learn to name animals.

Song Time!

1 Listen, look, and say.

Allow them to draw any animal they think is wild.

- Display the Flashcards. Hold up each Flashcard, write the animal's name in a list on the board and identify the animal. Have students hold up their picture if they drew that animal and repeat the animal's name. Count how many students drew each animal and write the number by the animal's name on the board.
- Identify any other animals students drew and add them to the list as well as the number of times it was drawn.
- Use the list on the board to identify the most popular animal drawn.

Vocabulary Reinforcement: If possible, show pictures and/or video clips of wild animals in their natural habitats (available on the internet) as students study the animals to facilitate interest, vocabulary reinforcement, and language development.

Lesson Objective

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 8, animals

Introduction

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will learn to name animals.

- Use 2-3 Flashcards to remind students what they know and elicit a few names of animals.
- Students will name and identify different animals.

Song Time

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 9, animals

Listen and sing.

- Play the unit song and encourage students to dance and use gestures for engagement and to assess what vocabulary students already know.
- Display the Flashcards as you hear the words come up in the song. The students will only hear the words at this point. They will not see the text of the song.

Game

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 9, animals

2 Play the acting game.

- When students are familiar with the vocabulary, play a game of Charades with the class. (See Game Bank, page 1134, for details.) Ask a volunteer to mime the movements and/or sounds of a particular wild animal, and have the others guess what it is. Repeat until everyone has had a chance to mime an animal.

Check that students can pronounce animal names correctly. Also listen for correct pronunciation and appropriate intonation as they guess each animal. Students can also play the game in groups while you go around and check their understanding and language.

Lesson Objective

Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to name animals.

- Encourage awareness of what students have learnt by quickly eliciting from a few students the names of animals.

Homework WB p. 76/ oct. 2

2 Look and match.

- Direct students to WB Activity 2 on page 76. Read the directions. Explain to the students that they must look at the pictures and match to the animal words.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Cardboard, lady sticks

Presentation

Why is grammar instruction important?

At a young age, it is not always appropriate to present new grammar structures to learners as a set of rules that require analysis and manipulation. Instead, they should be made aware of these structures by teaching them as chunks of grammar which they see and hear again and again until they start using them in a natural way. As children become older and begin to think more analytically, they are able to remember and apply rules to language structures.

The careful scaffolding through charts, visuals, and audio support in the grammar presentation and practice stages means that young learners feel secure and confident in the early stages of learning. This should give them a solid foundation on which to build further English language learning.

How do I teach grammar with Big English?

In addition to the four skills and vocabulary development, Big English recognizes that learners need systematic and repeated exposure over time to language structures if they are to make the new language their own. As with other lessons, the Grammar and the Language in Action lessons always start with sharing the learning objective with the class and reminding students what they already know about the topic.

Big English gives students the opportunity to consider structures in such devices as grammar boxes in their books. But Big English never abandons the necessity of presenting language structures in meaningful contexts, and highlights differences and similarities in language use to encourage students to work out the grammatical principle. This makes the grammatical rule more meaningful and memorable.

The Workbook also provides a variety of extra grammar practice activities to help students understand and eventually produce the target grammar.

Big English contains a wealth of recycling of structures throughout the course. This results in increased exposure to the target language, developing familiarity and mastery of the language. Students gain further opportunities to review the structures in the Review lessons at the end of each unit, as well as the Checkpoint sections that feature after every three units. This is crucial to mastering the target language.

Grammar

I will learn to use can/can't to describe what animals can do.

80 Unit 8 How did I do? ☆☆☆

th Systematic Phonics Development

What is systematic phonics development?

This approach to phonics development means an explicit and focused presentation of a small number of letter-sound correlations at any one time. The teacher follows a carefully planned sequence of sounds, and students build up to producing whole words by first listening to the separate key sounds, blending them, and finally attempting to produce a whole word which contains the target sound.

Why is systematic phonics development important?

Presenting the sounds of English in a systematic way means that all children will feel secure in what they need to do in these lessons. Students are given plenty of auditory support which acts as exposure to the spoken language. This is especially important for children with little exposure to English outside of class.

Having plenty of opportunities for practice, either receptively or productively, builds confidence in understanding spoken English. This will, in turn, build confidence in and mastery of using those sounds while speaking.

How do I teach phonics in a systematic way with Big English?

In this new edition, Big English now contains a dedicated Phonics lesson within each unit. As with other lessons, the Phonics lessons always start with sharing the learning objective with the class and reminding students what they already know about the topic.

Each Phonics lesson follows a highly-structured sequence. The target sounds are presented with clear audio and illustrations. Students are then given supported receptive practice to do. This is followed by an opportunity to listen and blend the target sounds in complete words. The target sounds are then practiced in context, through an engaging chant. The Workbook provides yet another opportunity for practice, which can be used in class or at home, with the learner practicing the new sounds with their family.

The Teacher's Edition contains comprehensive and highly supportive teaching notes. Target sounds are presented with audio to support teachers with the modeling of the sounds.

Have them call out: You! (and point at another person) if they hear a word with an /ou/ sound, e.g. soup, you, group, and toucan.
- Say the words in a random order interspersed with other words so that students have to listen carefully to the sound in each word and change the call out and the actions they make accordingly, e.g. say: red, down, table, man, group, clown, tree, letter, down, road, soup, bird, owl, map, can, town, toucan, and so on.

BIG ENGLISH

Lesson Flow

The lesson flows in Big English show a suggested sequence through the various resources in the course. These lesson flows are exactly the same in the print Teacher's Edition and the digital Teacher Presentation Tool allowing teachers to move seamlessly between them as they wish.

Warm-up

This is an activity which either recycles previously learnt target vocabulary or grammar in a fun or game-like way, or activates prior knowledge on a topic to get young learners into the right frame of mind at the start of a lesson.

TE

Lesson Objective

This is a stage where the teacher and students can discuss and focus on what their learning objective for the lesson is.

SB TE

Homework

Most lessons end with a suggested homework from the Workbook either as a print or interactive digital exercise. Alternatively, all digital exercises can be assigned as homework too.

WB SB

Lesson Objective

The lesson objective is reviewed at the end of each lesson. This is to raise awareness of what the students have learnt, and to give them a sense of achievement and progress.

SB TE

SB Student's Book

WB Workbook

TE Teacher's Edition

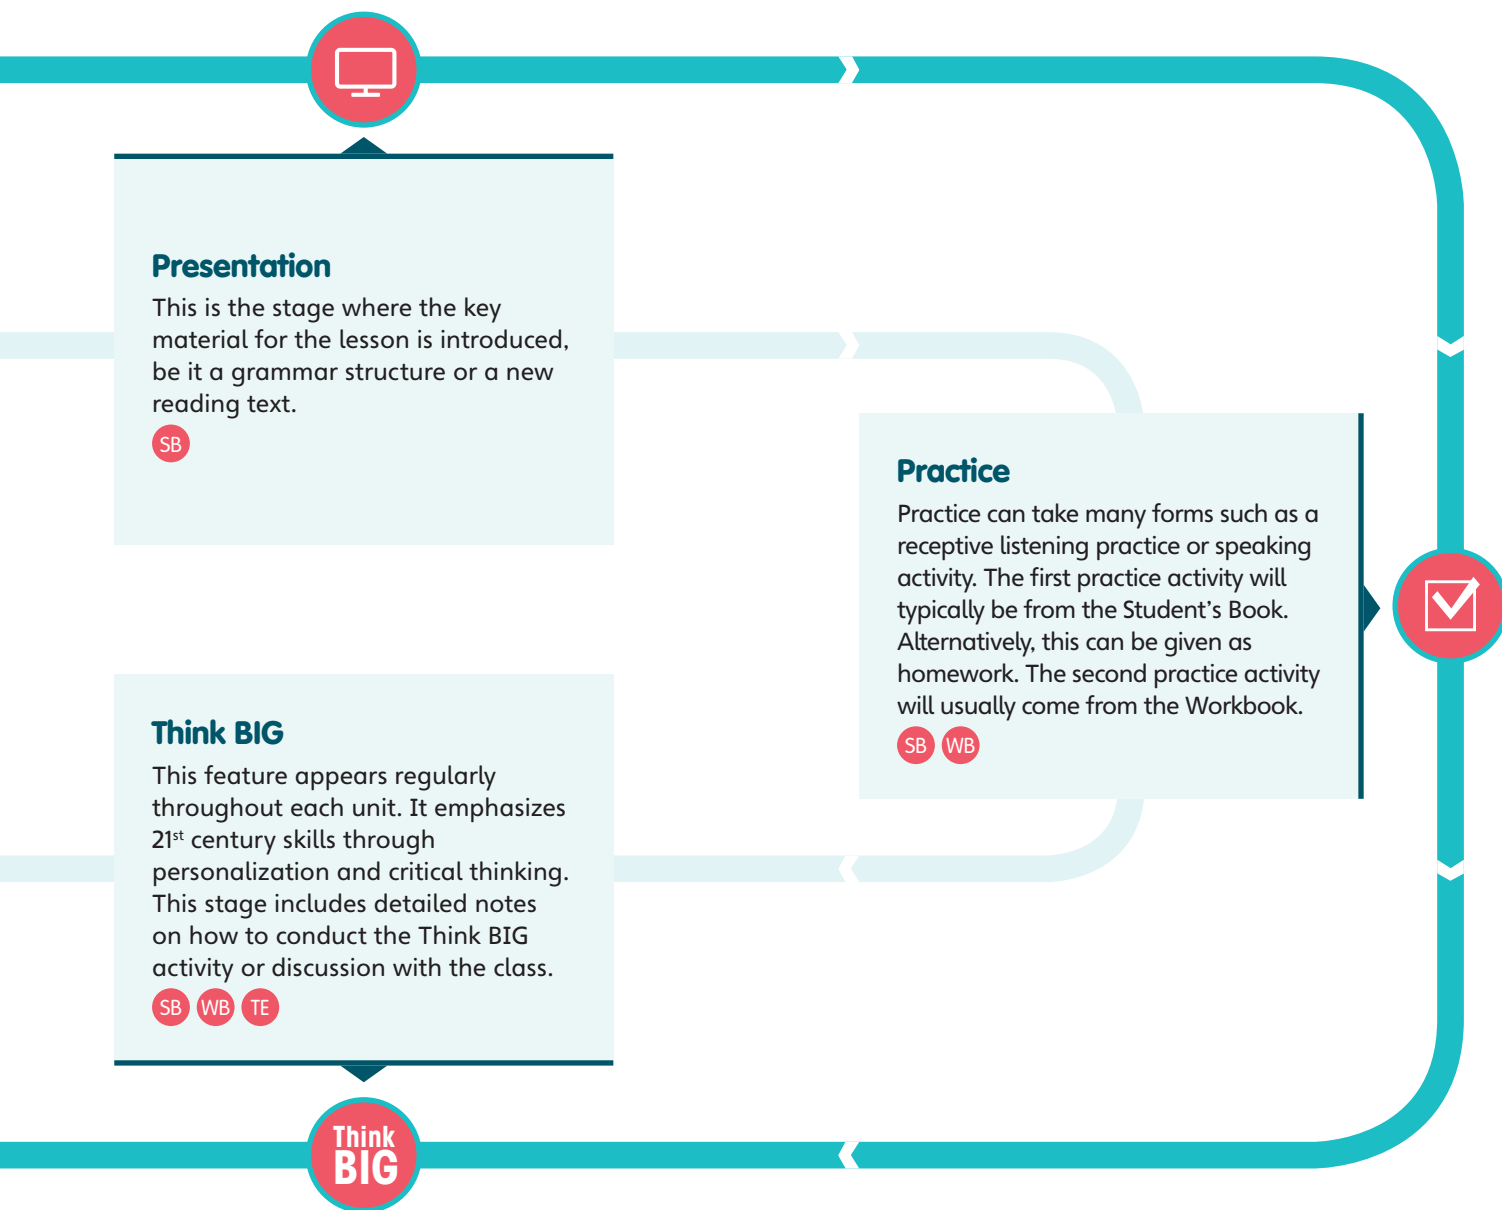

In the Teacher's Edition the lesson flows appear at the start of each lesson and tell the teacher how many activities are included and what their purpose is, for example, presentation or practice. The teaching notes follow this sequence of activities, providing guidance every step of the way as well as extra activities and ideas.

The Big English Teacher Presentation Tool gives you access to all the support of the lesson flows and teaching notes as well as:

- all the material you need for an activity in one place;
- interactive activities to carry out in class that you can use as an alternative to, or extension of, the print Student's Book or Workbook activities;
- supporting material to carry out some of the activities in the Teacher's Edition.

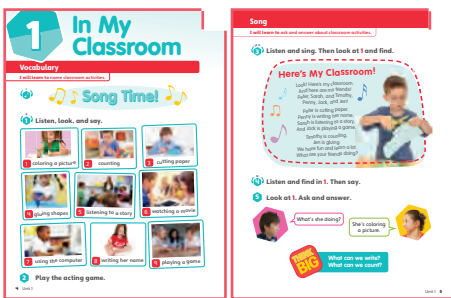

You can use the Teacher Presentation Tool on your projector or IWB to present the material from the course where each unit is broken down into individual lessons that mirror the structure of the print course.

Lesson flows in Big English are designed around the specific lessons but they share common stages.

Big English Song

From the mountaintops to the bottom of the sea,
From a big blue whale to a baby bumblebee –
If you're big, if you're small, you can have it all,
And you can be anything you want to be!

It's bigger than you. It's bigger than me.
There's so much to do, and there's so much to see!
The world is big and beautiful, and so are we!
Think big! Dream big! Big English!

So in every land, from the desert to the sea,
We can all join hands and be one big family.
If we love, if we care, we can go anywhere!
The world belongs to everyone; it's ours to share.

It's bigger than you. It's bigger than me.
There's so much to do, and there's so much to see!
The world is big and beautiful, and so are we!
Think big! Dream big! Big English!

It's bigger than you. It's bigger than me.
There's so much to do, and there's so much to see!
The world is big and beautiful and waiting for me.
A one, two, three...

Think big! Dream big! Big English!

Welcome Unit b

Warm-up

- Start the lesson with the Big English Song. Have students look inside the front cover of their Student's Book to see the song lyrics. Play Audio Track 2 and have students listen and read along quietly.
- Replay the audio. Have students sing along. You may want to have students clap or snap their fingers as they sing along.
- Once students are familiar with the song, have them practice it using the karaoke version (Audio Track 3).

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will read a story about where things are and talk about what we're doing now.
- Students will listen to and read a story, answer questions about it, and play a speaking game.

Pre-reading

- Have students look at the pictures in the story frames. Explain that the story is about finding where things are.
- Elicit the names of anything they recognize in the story frames.

Reading

1 Listen and read. Where is Jenny's backpack?

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 4. Model pointing to each story frame. Have students listen and follow in their books. Play the audio again, pausing after each frame.
- Read each sentence and have pupils repeat after you, pointing to Jenny and Max the cat.

MONITOR

- Ask: Where is Jenny's backpack? (It's under the cat, Max.)

Comprehension 1

2 Look at 1. Then match.

- Draw students' attention to the pictures in the activity. Show them that these pictures are from the story frames on page a.
- Read the instructions aloud, and model what students have to do. Show them how to match the picture with the sentence by drawing a line.
- Give students time to draw the lines to match.

MONITOR

- Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1c, 2a, 3d, 4b)

Comprehension 2

3 Look at 1. Read and circle.

- Review the present progressive with the class. Mime e.g. reading and ask: What am I doing? (I'm reading.)

Repeat with other actions that the children know, e.g. eating, playing, sleeping.

- Read out sentences 1–4, e.g. Jamie is combing his hair. / Jamie is taking a bath.
- Read the instructions and model what students have to do. Show them how to circle just the correct activity in each sentence.
- Give students time to read the sentences and circle.

MONITOR

- Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 combing his hair, 2 talking on the phone, 3 making lunch, 4 sleeping)

Game

4 Act it out with a partner.

- Demonstrate the activity. Explain that you are going to mime an action and the children have to ask: What are you doing? and you say e.g. I'm combing my hair. The students then say No or Yes depending on whether you are miming that activity. Repeat until you say the correct activity.
- Draw students' attention to the text in the speech bubbles. Read out the dialog and do the appropriate mime (drying dishes).
- Put students into pairs. Have them play the game and take turns to do the miming.

MONITOR

- As students work, listen for proper pronunciation, appropriate intonation, and correct use of language.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have read a story about where things are and learned to talk about what we're doing now.
- Encourage awareness of what the students have learned. Have students close their books. Hold up a pen and place it in different locations around the classroom to elicit in, on, under.
- Point to the characters in the story frames and ask, e.g. What is (Jamie) doing? Elicit responses, e.g. He's combing his hair.

Extra Practice and Application Activity

- Revise prepositions of location (in, on, under, etc.). Give each student a sheet of paper and some colored pencils or pens. Have them draw their favorite room in the house. Confident students can label what is in the picture (e.g. a table). As a challenge, have students ask and answer about objects in the rooms they have drawn, e.g. *Where is the (toy box)? Song Time

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 1, classroom activities

Listen and sing.

- Play the unit song and encourage students to dance and use gestures for engagement and to assess what vocabulary students already know.

- Explain that is is used when talking about one person or thing, and are is used when talking about more than one.
- Have each student write There is on one index card and There are on another. Then hold up one classroom object such as a pen and ask: How many pens are there? Have students hold up the sign that shows how they would begin an answer to the question (There is). Repeat with both singular and plural classroom objects.

Practice 3

13 Listen and write. Use There's or There are.

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 18 and have students complete the sentences independently.

10 Unit 1

Warm-up

- Have two pairs of students stand in front of the board. Use the students to create “living equations”. Write a plus (+) sign on the board between the two pairs. Write an equals (=) sign to the right of the two pairs. As you point to the two pairs of students, say: Two plus two equals four. Have students repeat after you.
- Arrange students to make other simple equations and elicit new sentences from the class.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

Are classes always in classrooms?

No, they aren't!

These students in Turkey are in a forest. They're studying trees and animals.

These students in France are having a P.E. class in the mountains. They love to ski.

These students in the United States are having a science class in the school garden. They're growing plants and flowers.

These students in Bangladesh are studying English. Their school is a boat! Bangladesh is a wet country. Sometimes schools close, but this school is always open.

Unit 1 11

Warm-up

Materials: World map showing the location of the new countries you want to teach

21st Century Global Awareness

- Write the names of the new countries Turkey, France, the United States, and Bangladesh on the board. Point to each one on the world map and ask students what they know about these countries.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Students will read about natural places and also how some children learn in other countries.

Pre-reading

- Tell students that they will hear about children who have classes outdoors in different locations around the world. Point to the children in the pictures.
- Ask: Where are the children? Write on the board: on a boat, in the mountains, in a garden, and in a forest and have students look at the pictures as you present the words.

ASSIST

Ask the students to tell you what they can see in each picture using the new words. Elicit answers as you point and ask about each picture.

MONITOR

Have students work in pairs asking and answering the question. Check. (Answers: 1 in a forest, 2 in the mountains, 3 in a garden, 4 on a boat)

Reading

16 Look, listen, and read. What are they studying?

- On the board, list the following: P.E., trees and animals, English and science. Explain words if students don't understand, e.g. P.E. (Physical Education). Read the words along with the students.
- Ask: What are the children studying? Ask the children to guess what the children are studying from the pictures.
- Ask: What the children are studying? Play Audio Track 22 and have students read along.
- Play the audio again and encourage students to point to the answers in the texts as they hear them.

ASSIST

Replay the audio pausing after each item and inviting students to explain in simple terms what they understood. Check students can say the names of the countries.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 trees and animals, 2 P.E., 3 science, 4 English)

Speaking

17 Talk about your classroom with a partner.

- Explain to students that they will be working in pairs to describe what they see in their classroom.
- Write the words desk, board, computer, and chair on the board and have students count how many items of each there are in the classroom. As they answer, review singular and plural forms.

ASSIST

Encourage students to describe what they see in the room and help them with vocabulary if necessary.

- Invite two students to read the conversation aloud as they act it out.

MONITOR

As students talk, listen for correct pronunciation and appropriate intonation.

- If possible, take students out to the schoolyard and encourage them to name the things they see, e.g. a tree, plant, flower or other items related to nature. Encourage students to tell you how they can take care of nature.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Four large labels (big enough to be seen by all students) showing the names of the countries learned in the lesson

- Place the labels (see Materials) on the walls, each one on a different wall. Have students stand around the classroom, and play mentioning a number and a country, e.g. There are 12 children in (Bangladesh), and 12 students must stand on the wall that shows the matching country. Unit 1 15

Warm-up

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 1, classroom activities

- Use the Flashcards to review the unit vocabulary. Play a game with students. Begin by writing these target phrases on the board: counting, cutting, coloring a picture, gluing shapes, listening to a story, playing a game, using the computer, watching a movie, writing her name.

- Provide paper or use a whiteboard and markers. The first player picks a Flashcard and draws a picture of someone doing the activity that's on the card. Students guess what the picture shows, using the phrases on the board. The student who guesses correctly gets to choose a card and draw the next picture. Continue playing until everyone has had a chance to draw a picture.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will review the words and structures of the unit.

- Students will review the words and structures of the unit through a variety of activities that involve finding differences in pictures, and playing a game. Then students will complete the I Can section, which helps them to assess their own learning and think about their progress.

21st Century Social Skills

- Remind students that when talking with a partner, only one person should speak at a time. Partners should take turns listening and speaking.

27 Listen and find. Say Picture 1 or Picture 2. Then ask and answer.

- Read the directions aloud. Have two volunteers read the text in the speech bubbles aloud. Explain that students will listen to the audio and say whether the statement refers to Picture 1 or Picture 2. They will then ask and answer questions about the classroom activities that the people are doing in the two pictures.
- Play Audio Track 29 and have students say: Picture 1 or Picture 2. Do the first item together as a class and then have students continue the activity in pairs.

MONITOR

While students are talking in pairs, listen for correct pronunciation, appropriate intonation, and correct use of language. Check answers. (Answers: 2, 1, 1, 1, 1, 2, 2, 2, 2, 1)

ASSIST

If students have difficulty talking about any of the activities, use the unit Flashcards as a prompt.

CHALLENGE

Divide the class into half or into small groups. Have groups make a list of all the differences they see between Picture 1 and Picture 2. Give a time limit and see which group identifies the most differences correctly in the least amount of time.

Show students how to manage the task systematically. Ask a student to describe what is happening in Picture 1 at the table on the left side of the picture. Then have him or her describe what the same children are doing in Picture 2. Encourage students to follow this pattern, going back and forth between the pictures.

Self-assessment

I Can

- This section asks students to assess their own learning and think about their progress. Help students appreciate their progress. Say: The I Can statements show what you have learned in this unit.
- Read the statement aloud. Explain that students should think about how well they know the language in the unit and should color in the stars. They should color three stars if they feel the unit was easy, two stars if they need some help, and one star if the unit was hard and they need more help. Have students work independently.

Suggestions for Remediation

Assessment Pack

- Direct students who need help with grammar and vocabulary to the Unit 1 Practice Tests in the Assessment Pack.

WB Unit 1/ p. 98

- Direct students who need help with grammar to the Unit 1 Extra Grammar Practice (Workbook, page 98).
- For further vocabulary work students can access games in the Big English Student World.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

- Have each student draw a picture of an activity he or she did in the classroom today. Have students exchange pictures with a partner.
- Then have each student display the partner's picture. Have the class ask in unison: What's he /she doing? Have the students describe the picture by completing the sentence frame He's/She's...

Assessment Pack

- To assess whether students have reached the listening and speaking targets for this unit, carry out the Unit 1 Oral Assessment in the Assessment Pack.
- Arrange one-to-one sessions with each student and use the prompts to evaluate their listening and speaking abilities.

Unit 2 21

Warm-up

- Write various celebrity names on the board. Have students pretend they are interviewing a friend or an agent of a celebrity. One student should play interviewer while the other plays the friend/agent. Have the "interviewer" ask (while pointing to a celebrity name): What does he/she like to do? Prompt the "friend" to answer in a complete sentence: He/She likes to (sing). Repeat for each student.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson of the previous unit.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn to use like to + verb to describe what people like to do and between, behind, in front of, and next to.

- Students will ask and answer questions using like to plus a verb to talk about what people like to do. Students will also learn behind, between, in front of, and next to.

Presentation 1

- Have students read the questions and answers in the grammar box at the top of the page aloud (repeating after you). Point out that the question What does he/she like to do? is answered with He/She likes to skate and What do they like to do? is answered with They like to play basketball.
- Refer students back to the Language in Action dialog and elicit or highlight the grammar structure in the dialog.

ASSIST

Elicit two or three questions and answers from the students to illustrate these concepts and write them on the board. Draw arrows from the questions to the answers. Have students refer to these questions and answers as they do the activity.

Practice 1

11 Listen and write. Then say.

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 40. As students listen, have them point to each picture. Play the audio a second time. Have students complete the sentences independently.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 does, likes to; 2 do, like to; 3 does, likes to)

Practice 2

7 Write do or does. Then listen and match.

- Tell students to read the sentences and write do or does in the blanks. Then play Audio Track 39 and have students match the sentences to the pictures.

Practice 3

8 Look at 7. Write the answers.

- Read the directions aloud. Ask them look at Activity 7 and fill in the blanks, using likes to or like to.

Presentation 2

Materials: A ball

- Display two books and a ball. Place the ball between the two books and say: It's between the books. Have students repeat each sentence. Place the ball behind one of the books and say: It's behind the book. Place the ball in front of one of the books and say: It's in front of the book. Place the ball next to one of the books and say: It's next to the book.
- Have three students stand in a row in front of the class and ask: Who is between (Carlos) and (Ana)? Continue having students stand behind, in front of, and next to each other while you ask questions about position.

Practice 4

12 Listen and write the words.

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 41 as students listen and read silently. Replay the audio and direct students to point to the correct answer for each sentence. Then have students complete the activity independently.

MONITOR

Check comprehension by asking about the position of each object: Where is the (bike)? Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 behind, 2 between, 3 next to, 4 in front of)

ASSIST

Replay the audio and point to each item in the picture. Provide two answer choices for students to choose from as they complete the sentences.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to use like to + verb to describe what people like to do and between, behind, in front of, and next to.

- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly asking a few students about outdoor activities, such as What does he/she like to do? He/She likes to play soccer. What do they like to do? They like to play volleyball.

Homework

9 Look and write.

- Tell students to read the sentences and look at the picture. Then have students complete the sentences using the words from the box.

10 Look at 9. Read and circle.

- Direct students to WB Activity 10 on page 17. Explain to students that they need to look at Activity 9 again, read the sentences, then circle the correct words.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

- Have students find out which activities their classmates like to do. On a sheet of paper, students can write the activities listen to music, play video games, and ride a bike. Along the top of the paper, students can write the names of four classmates.
- Have the student ask a classmate: What do you like to do? and then read the possible choices aloud. The student makes a check mark next to each activity the classmate likes.
- Invite students to present their findings to the class. Help them use their data to make sentences, e.g. Diego likes to ride a bike.

Extra Grammar Practice

- For optional further practice, have students complete the Extra Grammar Practice activities.

Tag! You're It!

1 In Ghana, Africa, children play Big Snake. One child is the "snake". The snake runs and tags another child. That child holds the snake's hand. Together they try to tag other children. Other children join the snake. At the end, there is one very big snake!

2 In Mexico, children play Sun and Ice. There are two teams. On each team, one child chases and tags a child on the other team. That child must freeze. He or she can't move. If another person on that child's team touches the child and says "Sun!" the child can move again.

3 In China, children play Catch the Dragon's Tail. Children stand in a line. They put their hands on the shoulders of the child in front of them. This is the "dragon." The first child is the head of the dragon. The last child is the tail. The head chases the tail. If the head child tags the tail child, the head child becomes the tail. A new child becomes the head. ASSIST Replay the audio as needed. Use gestures and simple language to help with understanding.

Pronunciation: Learning to recognize and pronounce unfamiliar sounds is one of the more difficult tasks for language learners. Remind students that some English sounds are very different from those in their home language. Encourage students to listen very carefully for the differences and try new ways to use their lips, teeth, and tongue to make new sounds.

Explain that this will feel strange at first but that means they are doing a good job!

Warm-up

Materials: Tray, 10 objects

- Set ten common objects – such as a pencil, coin, ball, crayon, or scissors – on a tray and cover them with a towel. Uncover the tray and let students study it for one minute. Then cover the tray again.
- Have students close their eyes and take one object off the tray. Have students open their eyes and identify the missing object.
- Repeat the activity so that as many students as possible get a chance to participate.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will review the words and structures of the unit.
- Students will review the words and structure of the unit through an activity that involves completing sentences about outdoor activities using like to and likes. Then students will complete the I Can section, which helps them to assess their own learning and think about their progress.

27 Work in groups. Play the Memory game.

- Read the directions aloud. Divide the class into groups of three players, and take students through the directions step by step, starting with Student 1 in the illustration.
- Have the groups play one round of the game.
- Then have the groups play two more times, each time beginning with a different student so that everyone has a turn remembering three activities.

MONITOR

- While students are playing, listen for correct pronunciation, appropriate intonation, and correct language use.

ASSIST

- As you notice any errors, say words or sentences correctly and have students repeat after you.

CHALLENGE

- Have students play the memory game in groups of four or more.

Turn-taking: Remind students that when playing a game, they should wait their turn to speak and not interrupt one another. Also, remind them to allow each player time to think and say their answer as they take a turn. Ask students not to correct each other. This kind of turn-taking allows English learners to feel safe as they attempt to produce new language.

- Have three students stand in front of the class. Ask Student 1 the question: What do you like to do? Have the student respond: I like to (play volleyball).
- Write the student's response on the board, substituting He or She for I. Explain that the verb ending needs to change too. Add an s to like and ask students why you have done this. After all three students have answered the question, have the class echo-read the sentences on the board after you.
- Repeat with three more students, asking different questions such as: What do you like to do at school? What do you like to eat? What do you like to draw?

- Have students play a game. Have Student 1 leave the room. Have Student 2 hide a Flashcard of a key vocabulary word in the classroom. Make sure all the other students know where it is.
- Have Student 1 return to the room and repeatedly ask as he or she walks around: Where's the (sink)? Led by Student 2, the other students answer by using temperature. For example, if Student 1 is far from the hidden picture, the students say: You're cold. As Student 1 walks closer, students say: You're getting warmer. When Student 1 is near the picture, students say: You're hot!
- When Student 1 is "hot," he or she repeats: Where's the (sink)? Then Student 2 responds with direction clues that help Student 1 find it, for example: It's under the book on Tomas's desk.
- Once the picture is found, Student 1 hides it, and another student hunts.

Unit 3 33

Warm-up

Materials: Index cards

- Have students stand in groups of four. Write the words computer, jacket, glasses, dresser on index cards, one word per card. Make a set of cards for each group. Distribute one card to each student. Tell students to listen and to move as the sentence describes. Say: The jacket is next to the computer. The student holding "jacket" should move next to the student holding "computer." Once students have moved to the correct position, ask: Where's the jacket? Prompt students to answer: It's next to the computer.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn to use it's and they're to describe where things are and name + 's to describe who things belong to.
- Students will use complete sentences using It's and They're to describe where things are in the house and use possessive 's to describe possession of objects, i.e. who they belong to.

Presentation 1

- Have students read the questions and answers in the grammar box at the top of the page aloud (repeating after you). Point out that the question Where's the TV? is answered with It's on the table and Where are the chairs? is answered with They're in the living room.
- Refer students back to the Language in Action dialog and elicit or highlight the grammar structures in the dialog.

ASSIST

Elicit two or three questions and answers from the students to illustrate these concepts and write them on the board. Draw arrows from the questions to the answers. Have students refer to these questions and answers as they do the activity.

Practice 1

11 Write It's or They're.

- Read the questions and answers in the first grammar box aloud. Explain that it's is a contraction that stands for it is and is used when talking about one thing. Explain that they're stands for they are and is used when talking about more than one.
- Read the directions aloud. Complete the first sentence as a group. Then have students complete the sentences independently.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 It's, 2 It's, 3 They're, 4 It's)

Practice 2

7 Follow and write.

- Read the directions aloud. Explain that the students have to follow the lines and write the words in the blanks.

MONITOR

Refer students to the grammar box to find the model question and answer. Have pairs read the question and answers aloud. Then have them switch roles and repeat.

Presentation 2

- Have students echo-read the text in the second grammar box. Have students find and underline the 's in mother's and in Ben's. Ask: What belongs to mother? (her phone) What belongs to Ben? (his keys)

Practice 3

12 Write. Use the names.

- Read the directions aloud. Explain that students will use the name in parentheses to complete the sentences. Complete Item 1 with students. Then have students complete the activity independently.

13 Work with a partner. Ask and answer.

- As a class, write questions that can be answered by Items 2–5 of Activity 12, for example: Where's Dylan's phone?
- Have pairs take turns reading the dialog in the speech bubbles aloud. Then have partners ask and answer questions about the location of their classmates' belongings.

Lesson Objective

9 Read the puzzles. Look at 8. Then write.

- Direct students to WB Activity 9 on page 27. Read the directions aloud, and walk students through Item 1.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Old catalogs or magazines, scissors, index cards, glue

- Have students cut a picture of something they like from old catalogs or magazines. Instruct them to glue it onto an index card. Under the item, have them write their name with punctuation to show possession and the name of the item, for example: Pablo's race car.
- Have students sit together in groups of three. Have each group member place his or her card in the classroom in plain sight. Then have students take turns asking about the location of another student's card. For example, Student 1 asks: Where's Pablo's race car? Student 2 says: *I see Pablo's race car. - Set students in pairs. Demonstrate how to shuffle and lay out all the cards face down in rows. Explain that the object of the game is to find as many pairs as possible by matching each picture to its word.
- Model by turning over two cards. Read the word aloud and name the picture. If the cards match, keep the pair. If they do not match, turn the cards back over. Explain that when students find a match, they can take another turn. If the cards do not match, their turn ends. Play continues until all cards are matched. The winner is the player with the most pairs at the end of the game.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective: Today I will think again about how well I can use what I have learned in Units 1–3.
- Students will write and draw about themselves. Then they will reassess their ability to use key language for Units 1–3.

Practice

5 Write or draw.

CHALLENGE

- Encourage students to write complete sentences when they answer each journal question.

Self-assessment 1

6 Think about it.

A Go to page 40. Look and circle again.

- Read the directions aloud.

21st Century Self-Direction

- Have students turn to the “Look and circle” exercise on page 40 and think about each of the categories again. Remind students to take their time to think about each category carefully. Suggest that they look at the reference pages listed as they review their skills.
- Ask students to use a different colored marker or pencil when they revisit the checklist on page 40. This will help them see both sets of circles.
- Students may want to circle the same face icon when they revisit the exercise. Model drawing the second circle outside the first so that both colors are visible, rather than covering up the first circle with the second color.

B Check (✓).

- Read the directions aloud. Say: You will check one box. Students can use the “Look and circle” exercise on page 40 to help them choose a response. If they circled ten to twelve smiling faces, they can start the next unit with confidence. If they circled fewer than ten smiling faces, they should probably check one of the other choices.

Self-assessment 2

7 Rate this Checkpoint. Color.

- Write easy and hard on the board. Say: Something is easy if you can do it without any problems. It's hard if you have trouble doing it. Give students examples of easy and hard activities: It's easy to raise your hand. It's hard to touch the top of a door.
- Write fun and not fun on the board. Say: Something is fun if you really enjoy doing it. Ask students to mime things that are fun to do.
- Read the directions aloud. Point out that they will color only one star in each section. Say: First, you will say if the Checkpoint was easy, OK, or hard. Then you will say if it was fun, OK, or not fun.

Using Checkpoint Evaluations: Student evaluations of the Checkpoint (easy/OK/hard, fun/OK/not fun) can give you insight into students' reactions to classroom activities. Review their answers to help you engage and motivate them as they continue to review Units 1–3 and move on to the next units. Consider whether students require additional assistance, deeper challenges, or more inspiring activities.

2 Play the memory game.

- When students are familiar with the vocabulary, play a game of What's missing? with the class. Display the set of Flashcards on the board. Point at and read aloud each card and then have students close their eyes. Remove a card and ask them to open their eyes and to identify the missing card. Say: What's missing? Elicit the name of the place for the missing card (e.g. movie theater). Repeat for other place names. You may also take away two to three cards at a time.

MONITOR

While students say the name of the missing card, listen for correct pronunciation and appropriate intonation. Students can also play the game in groups while you go round and check their pronunciation and intonation.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to name places in town.

- Encourage awareness of what students have learnt by quickly eliciting from a few students the names of places in town.

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 4, places

- Play a game of Charades. (See Game Bank, page T134, for details.) Shuffle Flashcards of the 11 places in Activity 1. Have Player 1 draw a card and mime what he or she would do at that place (e.g. eating if the card is restaurant.)
- Have students guess the place that Player 1 is acting out. The player who guesses correctly now takes a turn. Play until every student has had a turn. (The game can also be played in groups while you circulate and assist where necessary.)

Content Connection | Geography

I will learn about transportation.

Look, listen, and read.
Then match and write a-d.

CONTENT WORDS

How Do You Go to School?

a

1 I live in Bangkok, and I go to school by boat. There are a lot of canals here, and there are a lot of boats on the canals. Sunan

Unit 4 51

Warm-up

Materials: World map or globe

- Write the names of these cities on the board: London, Berlin, New Delhi and Havana. Ask students: How do you think people travel in these cities? Do you think people in these cities go to school or to work by taxi or by bus? How do you move around in the cities you go to on vacation? Elicit some answers and discuss them as a group. Finally, show the location of the cities and countries on the world map.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn about taxis around the world.
- Students will read about different types of cars that are used as taxis around the world.

Pre-reading

16 Look at the pictures. What kind of car do they show?

- Ask students to look at the pictures of the taxis and to describe each one with as many details as they can. Have them tell you which model they like the most and vote for their favorite one.
- Ask: What type of transportation is it? and elicit answers. Discuss their answers as a group.

Reading

17 Listen and read. Then match and write 1–4.

- Read the words in the Content Words box aloud, ensuring students understand their meaning.
- Read the directions aloud. Write the names of the cities on the board and number them 1–4, in the same order as in the texts.
- Play Audio Track 87 and ask students to listen while they read each of the paragraphs. Ask them to point at the words, as they hear them.

ASSIST

- Help students with any unfamiliar words and explain or have them help one another.
- With books closed, focus students' attention on the board and ask them to match the city with the taxis. Ask them to tell you which taxi corresponds to each city. Write their answers.
- Ask students to open their books and do the exercise individually. Walk around and help them with their work if necessary.
- Have students listen to and read the paragraphs again for them to check.

MONITOR

- Have students work in pairs so they can read the paragraphs to each other. Then check answers. (Answers: a 4, b 2, c 1, d 3)

CHALLENGE

- Form pairs, putting advanced and beginner students to work together to invent a modern taxi. Have the advanced student mention some characteristics and the other students draw it. Invite pairs at random to present their drawing or display all drawings on the wall for everyone to see and describe.

Practice

- On the board, write: 1 Havana has some new taxis. 2 The big black taxis aren't very old. 3 The taxis in Berlin are all different colors. 4 All the taxis in New Delhi have three wheels.
- Read the sentences aloud and make sure the students understand the vocabulary.
- Ask students to write the sentences in their notebooks and mark whether they think the sentences are true or false. They should work individually.

MONITOR

- Once they have finished, ask the students to compare their answers with a partner, then check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 T, 2 T, 3 F, 4 F)

Think BIG

Discuss the questions as a class. Have students find out the answers for a take-home activity, doing an internet search or looking up crosswalk in a dictionary. Encourage them to respond in English. Explain that the black and white stripes on a pedestrian crossing look like a zebra, so in some countries, a crosswalk is called a zebra crossing.

If there's time, also discuss that there are different kinds of signs for crossing the street safely in different countries. Some of them have symbols such as a red hand that means Don't walk. Some have sounds, like the sound of a bird chirping, that help people who can't see know when to cross.

Project

Materials: Poster paper, art supplies

23 Make a Cross Safely poster.

- Discuss with students what the example Cross Safely poster shows about traffic lights. Have students work in small groups to make their own Cross Safely posters. Suggest they make posters about WALK/DO NOT WALK signs, staying in the crosswalk, looking both ways, and so on. Have students include sentences about following traffic rules.

MONITOR

■ Post the completed posters in the classroom. Have the class read each one. Check for correct vocabulary usage and spelling.

CHALLENGE

■ Ask students what other safety issues they could make posters about. Prompt them by asking: What should you do when you get in the car? (buckle your seat belt)

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned how to cross the street safely.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly eliciting from a few students the words and sentences that they have learned about crossing the street safely.

18 Find and write the words.

- Direct students to WB Activity 18 on page 42. Read the directions aloud. Explain to the students that they need to put the letters in the correct order to complete the message.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

- Have students practice safety skills by role-playing crossing the road safely. In small groups, have students play a Follow the Leader game. Prompt the leader to stop, look both ways, and cross at the crosswalk (or stop, wait for the traffic signal, look both ways, and then cross at the crosswalk).

Goods and Services

Businesses want to make money. There are two ways to do this. They can produce goods, or they can provide services.

1 Goods are products. People buy and sell them. Clothes, cars, books, and houses are goods. When a farmer grows food or a carpenter makes a table, they're producing goods.

2 Services are activities that people do for others. When a hairdresser cuts your hair or a nurse takes care of you, they're providing a service

3 Some businesses provide goods and services together. For example, a restaurant sells goods: food and drink. But it provides services, too. Servers take the food to the table, and other people wash the dishes after the meal.

- 1 grow food: goods / services
- 2 cutting hair: goods / services
- 3 a restaurant: goods / goods and services

Do people in these jobs produce goods, provide services, or both?

- Show students objects associated with a particular job. For example, you could show a toy stethoscope and surgical gloves to show a doctor who makes us better (service), and some vegetables and a toy tractor to show a farmer who grows food (goods).
- Have students guess the job from the clues provided, and elicit whether the job provides goods or a service, and have them elaborate.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

- Students will learn and discuss how businesses can produce goods or provide a service.

Pre-reading

14 Look at the pictures. What are the jobs? How do they help us?

- Read the directions aloud and draw students' attention to the pictures below in Activity 15. Point at each picture individually and invite students to say what the jobs are and how the people in these jobs help us.

MONITOR

Goods and Services

Businesses want to make money. There are two ways to do this. They can produce goods, or they can provide services.

1 Goods are products. People buy and sell them. Clothes, cars, books, and houses are goods. When a farmer grows food or a carpenter makes a table, they're producing goods.

2 Services are activities that people do for others. When a hairdresser cuts your hair or a nurse takes care of you, they're providing a service.

3 Some businesses provide goods and services together. For example, a restaurant sells goods: the food and drink. But it provides services, too. Servers take the food to the table, and other people wash the dishes after the meal.

- 1 grow food: goods / services
- 2 cutting hair: goods / services
- 3 a restaurant: goods / goods and services

Do people in these jobs produce goods, provide services, or both?

Strange Jobs

1 Bicycle Fisher

In Amsterdam, Netherlands, there are many canals. There are also many bicycles. People ride their bikes everywhere. But sometimes people throw their old bikes in the canals. Bicycle Fishers go in the water. They bring the bikes out.

2 Train Pusher

Every morning and evening, millions of people ride the trains around Tokyo, Japan. There are too many people. Not everyone can get on the train. Train pushers help them. They push people inside the trains.

3 Human Bed Warmer

Some hotels in London, in the United Kingdom, pay people to lie in customers' beds. In winter, hotel beds are sometimes cold. Human bed warmers wear special clothes and lie in the beds. The beds get warm.

4 Passenger for Hire

In Jakarta, Indonesia, there are many cars on the road every day. If a driver is alone, he or she must pay money to use the highway. If there are three or more people in the car, the driver does not pay. Some drivers hire people to ride in their car. Then they can drive for free!

Unit 5 63

Warm-up

Materials: World map or globe, flags from the four countries to be presented

- Play a team game to review jobs that students know already. Mime different jobs they know: actor, artist, athlete, teacher, vet, doctor, etc.
- Put students into two teams. Have teams guess what job you are miming. Give each team who guesses correctly a point. The team with the most points wins.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

21st Century Global Awareness

- Write the names of the new countries (the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, Japan, Indonesia) on the board, and point to each one on the world map. Put up the flags on the board and invite students to describe the flags as you review the colors. Ask students what they know or have heard about these countries. Elicit some answers.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn about unusual jobs around the world.
- Students will read about some very unusual jobs that some people do in different countries.

Pre-reading

16 Look at the pictures. What kind of jobs are these?

- Draw students' attention to the pictures. Look at each picture in turn and ask, for example: What can you see? Who is this person? What are they doing? Why? What kind of job is it? Ask: What kind of jobs are these? (Answer: unusual/strange)
- Draw student's attention to the paragraph headings and the words in the Content Words box. Read them aloud and explain any unfamiliar words or phrases.

Reading

17 Listen and read. Then match with the pictures.

- Draw students' attention to the four paragraphs. Explain that they are going to read and find out what unusual jobs the people in the pictures are doing.
- Read the directions and play Audio Track 105. Have students listen and follow the text in their books. (Answers: 1 c, 2 d, 3 a, 4 b)

Comprehension

- Ask or write questions on the board to check students' comprehension of the text. Ask: What do many people do in Amsterdam? (Throw their bikes in the water/canals.) What do Bicycle Fishers do? (They bring bicycles out of the canals) Why do they need train pushers in Tokyo? (Because there are too many people to fit on the train.) Why do they need human bed warmers in the United Kingdom? (Because the weather is cold in winter.) What must drivers in Jakarta do? (Pay money for driving alone.)

Think BIG

21st Century Communication

- Ask the question, inviting students to answer. Invite students to tell you why they would like to try that particular job. Help them explain their reasons in English. Remind them about the use of because and help them with any necessary vocabulary.
- Have students work in pairs, asking and answering the questions.

Speaking

- Write on the board: What do you want to be? I want to be a farmer. Model the example and then have several students ask you the question. Answer them with different jobs every time. Elicit answers from different students, helping them with vocabulary as necessary.
- Write on the board: What do farmers do? They grow food. Model again and have students practice by asking you the question about different jobs. Answer accordingly.

ASSIST

Ask students the questions and help them with language if necessary, having them repeat. Encourage them to write down the questions and answers for themselves in their notebooks.

- Ask students to ask and answer the questions in pairs.

MONITOR

As students ask and answer the questions check for correct pronunciation, intonation, and language use.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned about unusual jobs around the world.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly eliciting the names of the unusual jobs students read about in the texts and what the jobs involve.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

- Give each child a piece of paper, and explain that they are going to create their own strange job. They need to draw and describe the job. For example, they may draw and describe a garden waterer (someone who comes to just water your plants every day). This activity can be carried out individually or in pairs.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

- Make a list of jobs on the board (use the key vocabulary from this unit and/or use the jobs that students mentioned earlier in the unit).
- Once the list is complete, choose a word (teacher), write it horizontally on the board and give a clue about it: (I like music.). Then choose one letter in the word (a) and give students a clue to another job, e.g. I like art. This word starts with A. Write artist vertically, connecting it to teacher, crossword-style. Go round, checking students’ spelling as they write. Listen for complete sentences.

ASSIST

Encourage students to search for words in the Student’s Book to find the correct spelling.

Practice 2

28 Count how many students in 27 want each job. Write a list.

- Read the directions aloud. Have each group complete the chart. Have each student, in turn, count to double-check the information on the tally sheet.

MONITOR

Go round, checking that students are using English as they count and tally.

Practice 3

29 Look at this bar chart. Make a bar chart for your group and talk about it.

- Read the directions aloud. As needed, show students how to make a bar chart.

21st Century Collaboration

Have each group complete a bar chart together and discuss what it shows. Ask groups to give roles to members, such as reporter, artist, and calculator.

- Have each group present their bar chart to the class, telling what they found.

MONITOR

Check to see that students understand how to make a bar chart.

ASSIST

Model on the board how to set up a bar chart and fill in one of the jobs as a model.

Self-assessment

I Can

- This section asks students to assess their own learning and think about their progress. Help students appreciate their progress. Say: The I Can statements show what you have learned in this unit.
- Read the statement aloud. Explain that students should think about how well they know the language in the unit and should color in the stars. They should color three stars if they feel the unit was easy, two stars if they need some help, and one star if the unit was hard and they need more help. Have students work independently.

Suggestions for Remediation

Assessment Pack

- Direct students who need help with grammar and vocabulary to the Unit 5 Practice Tests in the Assessment Pack.

WB Unit 5/ p. 102

- Direct students who need help with grammar to the Unit 5 Extra Grammar Practice (Workbook, page 102).
- For further vocabulary work, students can access Big English Student World.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

- Write the following on the board: pilot, dancer, vet, teacher. Divide students into four groups. Assign one of the listed jobs to a group. Have each group go through Unit 5 and count how many times that job is pictured.
- Together, as a class, combine data into a bar chart.

CHALLENGE

Have students find and count how many times the word is written in the unit. Make graphs to compare the number of pictures and words.

Assessment Pack

- To assess whether students have reached the listening and speaking targets for this unit, carry out the Unit 5 Oral Assessment in the Assessment Pack.
- Arrange one-to-one sessions with each student and use the prompts to evaluate their listening and speaking abilities.

68 Unit 6

Warm-up

Materials: Teacher-made number cards 1–12

- Practice numbers 1 to 12 with students by singing “Roll Over.” This is a fun song for students to sing and mime. (Substitute any familiar animal for bears.)

There were twelve bears in the bed and the little one said, “Roll over, roll over”. So they all rolled over and one fell out. There were eleven bears in the bed and the little one said, “Roll over, roll over”. So they all rolled over and one fell out.

(Continue counting down until last verse.) There was one bear in the bed and the little one said, “Goodnight”!

- Have twelve students stand at the front of the room, each holding a number card with a numeral (1 to 12). As each number is sung, have the student hold it up. For “roll over”, the student with that number sits down.

Lesson Objective

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 6, clock times

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will learn to name clock times.

- Use 2–3 Flashcards to remind students what they already know and elicit a few times.
- Students will name and identify different times on a clock.

Song Time

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 6, clock times

Listen and sing.

- Play the unit song and encourage students to dance and use gestures for engagement and to assess what vocabulary students already know.
- Display the Flashcards as you hear the words come up in the song. The students will only hear the words at this point. They will not see the text of the song.

Presentation

1 Listen, look, and say.

INVOLVE

Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 113. Have students listen, point at each clock, and then repeat the time.

MONITOR

Replay the audio and pause after each item, while students repeat it several times. Listen for proper pronunciation and appropriate intonation.

ASSIST

Replay the audio as needed. Have students say a time to you as you point at the clocks. Sometimes, point at the wrong clock and have students correct you.

Practicing Vocabulary: Reinforce the vocabulary in this unit by pointing out what time your lesson begins and ends each day. In addition, discuss the daily school timetable, noting what time the class does different activities, such as lunch, math, or art.

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 114, and have students listen to the words, check the correct picture, then write the clock times.
- Have students work independently, and then compare answers with a partner.

Game

Materials: Toy clock

2 Play the time game.

- When students are familiar with the times, play a game with the class as follows: Show a time on a toy clock (or draw it on the board) and have students read the time and form a group of that number. For example, show three o'clock and have students form groups of three. Those students who are unable to form a group, must sit out. (Note: for one o'clock, students remain single.)

MONITOR

Check that students can read and understand different times correctly.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to name clock times.

- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly eliciting from a few students a variety of times displayed on a clock.

Homework WB p. 54/ act. 2

2 Read, draw, and say.

- Direct students to WB Activity 2 on page 54. Read the directions. Explain to the students that they must read the clock times, draw them on the blank clock faces, and then say the time.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Teacher-made clock templates, card, brass fasteners

- Make and print out a clock template for each student by drawing a large circle on paper and adding hours 1 through 12.
- Have students glue each clock face onto card. Have students trace and cut out an hour and minute hand. Use a brass fastener to attach the clock's hands to the center of the clock face. Name different times and have students set the hands on their clocks and repeat the time.

MONITOR

Make sure that the hour and minute hands are on the correct numbers.

But it's time to brush my teeth!

At nine o'clock, I start school.
I eat my breakfast and get my books.
I love school, it's cool!

Tick, tock. It's three o'clock.
There's no more school today.
I do my homework, and I go out.
And there's my friend to play.

Now it's evening, and it's eight o'clock,
And it's time to go to bed.
I watch TV and read my book.
Time to sleep now, good night!

Unit 6 69

Warm-up

- Take the class to a large area where they can run and move around. Play a game of What time is it, Mr. Wolf? as follows: Have the class form a horizontal line on one side and then stand opposite them. Turn your back to them and have them call out: What time is it, Mr. Wolf?

Say a time, e.g. four o'clock. Have students take four steps toward you (keeping your back turned). Repeat with different times until students are close to you. Then, shout: Lunch time! Chase the class and catch one student. That student then has a turn to be "Mr. Wolf".

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Set the objective of the lesson. Say: Today I will learn to ask and answer about clock times.

- Students will sing a song and then talk about at what time of day certain activities are done.

Listen and Sing

3 Listen and sing. Then look at 1 and find.

- Read the directions aloud. Display the Flashcards and play Audio Track 115. Have students listen and read the song silently.
- Play the audio again and lead students as they sing the song.
- Replay the audio. Have students sing along and mime the lyrics. Verse 1: get up, get dressed, brush teeth; Verse 2: start school, eat breakfast, get books; Verse 3: do homework, go out, play; Verse 4: go to bed, watch TV, read book.
- Play the audio again and have students look at the clocks in Activity 1 and find which times are not mentioned in the song.

MONITOR

Check students' comprehension. (Answers: one o'clock, two o'clock, four o'clock, five o'clock, six o'clock, ten o'clock, eleven o'clock, twelve o'clock)

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 117 and have students look at the song in Activity 3 and say yes or no.
- Do the first item together as a class and then have students continue the activity by saying yes or no to a partner.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: yes, no, no, yes)

Comparing Clocks: Bring in two or three different clocks – for example, a wind-up clock showing analog time and an electric or battery operated clock showing digital time. Demonstrate how they work. Help students compare and contrast them to the older methods of telling the time.

Speaking

5 Look at 1. Ask and answer.

- Read the directions aloud. Then have students read the text in the speech bubbles aloud.

- Have pairs of students randomly point at the clocks in Activity 1 and ask and answer: What time is it? It's... o'clock.

Practice 2

WB p. 55/ act. 4

4 Look at 3. Write.

- Read the directions aloud. Ask the students to look at the song text in Activity 3, then read the beginnings of the sentences, and complete by writing in the blanks. Have students work independently. Get feedback from the class.

21st Century Critical Thinking

Discuss the questions as a class. Help students to identify the present time, as well as the times at midday and midnight. (Answers: At midday, it's twelve o'clock in the afternoon. At midnight, it's twelve o'clock at night.)

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to ask and answer about clock times.

- Encourage awareness of what the students have learned by quickly eliciting a few things they remember about the song, for example, which clock times they heard in the song.

Homework

WB p. 55/ act. 3

3 Listen and sing. Look at the pictures. Then number in order.

- Direct students to WB Activity 3 on page 55. Read the directions. Explain to students that they must first listen and sing along to the song on Audio Track 118, then look at the pictures of children doing daily activities, and number the pictures in order as they hear each activity.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Students' clocks from previous lesson

- Divide the class into two teams. Ask for a volunteer from each team to come to the front, bringing with them the clock face they made in the previous lesson. Whisper the same time in each volunteer's ear, e.g. three o'clock and the volunteers set their clock to the correct time as quickly as they can and show their team. The first team to call out: Tick, tock. It's three o'clock. wins a point. The team with the most points wins.

Warm-up

Materials: Picture of a grandfather clock

- Teach students the rhyme Hickory, Dickory, Dock. Hickory, dickory, dock. The mouse runs up the clock. The clock strikes one. The mouse runs down. Hickory, dickory, dock.
- Display a picture of a grandfather clock to help students understand how the mouse could run up and down the clock. Explain that the clock strikes each hour, once at one o'clock, twice at two o'clock, etc. Have students draw a mouse running up or down a grandfather clock.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will read a story about times and daily activities.

- Students will listen to and read a story, answer a question about it, and discuss ideas related to it.

Pre-reading

- Read the story title aloud. Have students repeat it. Explain that this story is about Jenny and her mom in their home. Jenny is asking her mom questions about their cat, Max. Have them look at the story frames and say what they see. For example, ask: Who's this? (Jenny) And who's this? (her mom) What is it? (a cat) What time is it? (It's eight o'clock) Also help students name the room the characters are in and any furniture they recognize.

Reading

6 Listen and read. When does Max get up?

- Read the directions aloud. Draw attention to the question: When does Max get up? Play Audio Track 119. Have students listen and read along silently.

Comprehension 1

- Demonstrate the meaning of the expressions sounds boring and sounds great. First, write boring and great on the board. Then hold up several pieces of typewritten paper and say: This is a list of all the people who go to your school. I'm going to read the list of names now. OK? Ready? Pretend to start reading names, then stop and say: This is boring. Next, hold up a comic book or appealing magazine and say: I'm going to read you a good story. OK? Point at the word boring: A long list of names? That sounds boring. A good story? That sounds great!

MONITOR

Ask comprehension questions about the story. For example, ask: When does Max get up? (two o'clock in the afternoon) When does Max come back? (seven o'clock) What does Max do all day? (He walks, eats, and sleeps.) What does Max do most of the time? (sleeps)

ASSIST

Replay the audio as necessary. Pause after each frame and point out what is going on in each picture. Use simple language and gestures to explain unfamiliar words.

Comprehension 2

7 Look at the story. Number in order.

- Have students complete the activity independently, assisting them as needed.

MONITOR

Point at Frames 2, 3, and 4 and ask students to describe what Max is doing in the thought bubble. Then check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 Max gets up. 2 Max eats. 3 Max goes out. 4 Max sleeps again.)

Comprehension 3

72 Unit 6

Warm-up

Materials: Analog clock

- Play Bingo by having students fill in Bingo cards with times from 1:00 to 12:00 in random order. (See Game Bank, page T135, for details.)

- Have the Bingo caller set the hands on an analog clock face, hold it up, and say the time. Students respond by covering that time on their Bingo cards. Check the winner's row of times by having the student read them aloud. Let the winner be the next game caller.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will listen to a dialog about times.

- Students will practice listening skills by listening to a dialog, use the language of the unit in context by acting out a conversation with a partner, and talk about times of the day.

Pre-listening

- Point at the girl and her dad. Introduce them as Emily and Dad. Ask: What is Emily wearing? (pajamas). Ask: What is she doing? (Answer: She is eating breakfast.) Elicit the time of day (morning). Tell students that they will hear Emily and her dad talking about the time.

Listening

8 Listen and read. Then say.

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 120. Have students listen and follow along in their books. Pause the audio from time to time so that students can repeat what they hear.

Comprehension

MONITOR

Ask questions to check for comprehension. Say: What time is it? (eight o'clock) Is it morning or night? (morning) What time does Emily go to school? (at eight o'clock) Why isn't Emily going to school? (It's a holiday.)

CHALLENGE

Ask students: What do you do on holidays when you don't have to go to school? As students talk about what they do, write their ideas on the board. Then have them vote on which activity on the list is the most fun.

Role Play

9 Look at 8. Role-play with a partner.

- Read the directions aloud. Pair students to read the dialog and act it out. After students read through one time, have them switch roles and repeat.

MONITOR

As students work, listen for proper pronunciation, appropriate intonation, and correct use of language.

Practice 1

10 Listen and stick.

Materials: Stickers

- Help students find the Unit 6 stickers at the back of the Student's Book. Tell them they will listen to the audio and place stickers in the correct places, based on what they hear.
- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 121. Continue playing the audio, repeating it as necessary and have students complete the sticking part of the activity independently.

- Have students practice the unit language in the dialog. Point at a picture and help them to form the correct sentence. For example, for picture 3: She goes to bed at ten o'clock.; for picture 2: The movie starts at eight o'clock.
- Students can also practice asking and answering about the time with a partner. For example: What time is it? (It's four o'clock.)

MONITOR

Walk around to make sure that students have correctly placed the stickers. (Answers: 1 six o'clock, 2 eight o'clock, 3 ten o'clock, 4 four o'clock) Ask questions about each picture and have volunteers say the answers aloud. For example, for picture 1, ask: What time is it? (It's six o'clock.) When does she get up? (She gets up at six o'clock.)

ASSIST

If necessary, pause audio and help students complete each item.

Practice 2

7 Look at 6. Write.

- Direct students to WB Activity 7 on page 57. Ask them to look again at the questions in Activity 6, then complete the partially completed sentences in Activity 7 by filling in the blanks.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Chart paper

- As a class, make a school schedule on chart paper that shows times of day with clock faces and what students do at each time. Tape it to the board.
- Throughout the day, stop and refer to the schedule and ask questions such as: What time will we go to assembly today? Is it time for lunch? What time is recess? Use the schedule as an ongoing activity. Change the schedule as needed each day. Use it as a discussion topic, especially when the schedule changes.

Unit 6 73

Warm-up

Materials: Index cards, construction paper

- Write times (in words) from one o'clock to twelve o'clock on index cards and place them facedown in a stack. Write large numerals 1 through 12 on sheets of construction paper.

- Arrange the numerals on the floor in the shape of a clock face. Have two volunteers sit in the center of the clock. Have one be the hour hand and one be the minute hand. Have one student choose a time card and read the time aloud. Have the two students in the center of the clock point their arms as if they were each a hand on the clock. Have the class confirm whether the two students are correct or not and give directions to correct as needed.

- Repeat with different students as clock hands. Play until everyone has had a chance to participate.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn to use when + the present simple to describe daily activities.

- Students will use the verbs do/does and the phrases get up/gets up, go to bed, and start/starts.

Presentation

- Read the questions and answers in the grammar box aloud. Point out that does/get up is used with he/she in the question, and gets up is used with he/she in the answer; do/go to is used with you/they in the question, and go to is used with I/they in the answer; and does/start is used with the movie in the question, and starts is used with it in the answer.
- Refer students back to the Language in Action dialog and elicit or highlight the grammar structure in the dialog.

Practice 1

11 Look and write do or does.

- Read the directions aloud. Complete Items 1 and 2 with students, reminding them again that does is used with she, and do is used with they. Have students complete the remaining items independently.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 does, 2 do, 3 does, 4 does, 5 does, 6 does)

ASSIST

Have students circle the subject of each sentence and use it to help them choose between do and does. Remind them to refer to the grammar box if they are unsure.

Practice 2

12 Look at 11. Write the answers to the questions.

- Reread the questions and answers in the grammar box at the top of the page. Have students repeat after you.
- Do Item 1 together. Then have students complete the activity independently.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 She brushes her teeth at 7:00. 2 They eat lunch at 12:00. 3 School starts at 8:00. 4 He goes to bed at 9:00. 5 School ends at 3:00. 6 He gets up at 6:00.)

Practice 3

WB p. 58/ act. 8

8 Read and circle. Then draw and write the time.

- Read the directions aloud. Explain that the students have to read the questions and answers and circle the correct options, then draw the time on the blank clock face, and write the time.

MONITOR

Refer students to the grammar box to find the model question and answer. Have pairs read the question and answers aloud. Then have them switch roles and repeat.

Practice 4

WB p. 59/ act. 9

9 Write about you. Add the times.

- Read the directions aloud. Explain that the students have to write about themselves and the times that they carry out each daily activity. Have students work independently.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to use when + the present simple to describe daily activities.

- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly asking a few students about daily activities: What time do you go to bed? Students answer: I go to bed at... .

Homework

WB p. 59/ act. 10

10 Look at 9. Write.

- Direct students to WB Activity 10 on page 59. Read the directions aloud, and walk students through Item 1.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Bus or train schedule

21st Century Information Literacy

- Provide pairs of students with a simple bus or train schedule. Show students how to read it. Provide a model dialog for reading the schedule, such as: When does the first bus leave? It leaves at six o'clock. Have partners take turns asking and answering questions.

CHALLENGE

Have students use the schedule to plan a trip. Say: It is four o'clock. I have to be in [place] by 5:30 p.m. Which train/bus should I take? I have an appointment at 2:30 today. What train/bus should I take?

Extra Grammar Practice

Telling the Time

What time is it? How do you know? Today we look at clocks, watches, and cell phones, but here are some other ways to tell the time. Some are very old.

- 1 A sundial uses the sun to tell the time. The sun makes a shadow on the sundial, and the shadow tells the time.
- 2 A candle clock uses a candle to tell the time. When the candle burns, it gets shorter. The height of the candle tells you the time.
- 3 An hourglass uses sand to tell the time. Sand falls from the top to the bottom. Some people use small hourglasses today when they're cooking.
- 4 A water clock uses water to tell the time. It works like an hourglass. It has two cups. The water falls from one cup to the other.

THINK BIG

Look, think, and draw.

Warm-up

Materials: Clock faces from Application and Practice Activity on page T68

- Chant the rhyme Hickory, Dickory, Dock changing the time randomly.
Hickory, dickory, dock. The mouse runs up the clock. The clock strikes one. The mouse runs down. Hickory, dickory, dock.
- Give students times from one to twelve o'clock and have each set the time on the clock faces they made in the Application and Practice Activity on page T68. Each time an hour is heard in the chant (one, two, etc), have students raise their clock.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn about different ways of telling time.
- Students learn about items that measure time from long ago.

Pre-reading

13 Look at the pictures. What do all the things do?

- Read the directions aloud and have students look at the four pictures below in Activity 14.
- Ask students what they think the items do and elicit that they all measure time.

Reading

14 Look, listen, and read. Then match with the pictures.

- Read the directions and the content words aloud, ensuring students are familiar with their meaning.
- Show examples of the items, or pictures of them, and invite students to name them.
- Play Audio Track 123 as students follow along in their books. Pause after each item. Say the highlighted word and have students point at it as they repeat.
- Replay the audio, pausing after each item for students to draw lines from the picture to the description.

MONITOR

- Check students are matching the correct items to the descriptions. Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 c, 2 d, 3 a, 4 b)

Practice

WB p. 60/ act. 11

11 Are these ways to tell the time new or old? Write new or old.

- Read the directions aloud. Explain to the students that they need to read the object words, then write whether they think they are new or old in the blank spaces. Walk through Item 1 with them.

Think BIG

21st Century Critical Thinking

- If possible, try to find a real hourglass to demonstrate the process depicted in this activity. Copy the drawings onto the board and elicit from students what the sand in the final hourglass should look like. Students then draw it in their books. (Answer: the sand should fill the bottom of the final hourglass.)

Video

Documentary U 06

- Refer to the Video Guide for pre-watching and post-watching activities.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned about different ways of telling time.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly asking them to talk about different objects in their own houses and whether they are old or new.

Homework

WB p. 60/ act. 12

12 Read and write. Then listen and check.

- Direct students to WB Activity 12 on page 60. Explain to students that they have to read the paragraph, read the words in the box, and then use them to fill in the blanks. Then they should listen to Audio Track 124 and check their answers.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Plastic water bottles, sand, aluminum foil

- To help students understand how an hourglass works, have them make sand clocks. You may want to write and illustrate the directions on the board or on a large sheet of paper.
- Provide groups of students with two small plastic water bottles. Have them fill one bottle with sand and then cover the top with a small piece of heavy-duty aluminum foil. Have them tape the foil firmly in place.
- Next, have them poke a small hole in the aluminum foil with a sharp pencil. The hole should allow sand to flow through.
- Then have students place the empty bottle on the sand-filled bottle, neck to neck. Have them tape the two bottles together. Finally, have students turn the bottles over. Help them time how long the sand takes to empty.

I will learn about different ways of telling time.

Unit 6 75

Warm-up

Materials: World map or globe, clock with movable hands

- Use the clock with movable hands to talk about hours in a day and how a day is divided into day and night, and morning, afternoon, and evening.

21st Century Global Awareness

- Write on the board the names of the three countries from the text (South Korea: Seoul, Brazil: São Paulo, the United States: Alaska). Point at the countries on the world map or globe, and ask students what they know about these countries. You might want to ask if they know any famous places, food, or people from the three countries.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn about different jobs around the world.

- Students will read about different jobs around the world and the different routines people have and times they work.

Pre-reading

- Draw student's attention to the words in the Content Words box. Explain, draw, or mime the words.
- Elicit what midnight and noon mean (one is 12 o'clock in the night, the other is 12 o'clock in the daytime). Look at the vocabulary box and explain what a.m. and p.m. mean. Look at either the clock in your classroom or a watch, and elicit if it is currently a.m. or p.m.
- Draw students' attention to the pictures on the page. Ask: Where is this? and elicit which picture is from South Korea, which is from Brazil, and which is from the United States.

Reading

15 Listen and read. Write the times.

- Read out the directions and model writing a word in a space in the text.
- Play Audio Track 125. Students listen and follow the text.
- Replay the audio. This time, have students listen and try to write the missing words.

MONITOR

Check students are writing the correct answers. Check answers as a class. (Answers: 6:00, 11:00, 5:00, 6:00, 3:00, 10:00)

Comprehension

- Ask and write questions on the board to check understanding: Where is the market? (Seoul, South Korea). When does the store open? (6:00 p.m.) When does Bruno's sister get up? (at 5:00 a.m. every day) Why? (Because she works in a bakery) What does Sam's uncle fly? (small airplanes) When does he finish work? (Sometimes at 3:00 p.m., sometimes at 10:00 p.m.)

Think BIG

21st Century Collaboration

- Discuss the questions as a class. Encourage students to give simple answers in English.
- Put students into pairs. Each pair asks the other students in class which job they like (in the clothes store, in the bakery, or as a pilot) and why. They can make a tally in their notebooks, and note any interesting reasons.

- Students then work in pairs to present their data. They may like to just show their simple tally or create a bar chart or a pie chart to show their answers. More able students can then present their findings to the class, for example: Three children like the job in the bakery because they want to eat the cakes at break time!

Speaking

- List a few activities that students do every day that they go to school on the board: get up, eat my breakfast, start school, eat lunch, finish school, do homework, go to bed, etc.
- Ask students to copy the list in their notebooks and then to think about and write (the approximate) times that they do the activities. For example, get up - 7 o'clock. Check that students are writing the times correctly and help if necessary.
- Have students work in pairs and, using the list in their notebooks, describe their routines to each other.

MONITOR

As students complete the task, check for proper pronunciation and intonation.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned about different jobs around the world.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly asking them to talk about the different jobs they have read about in the text.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Sheet of paper folded to make a little booklet, art supplies.

- Ask the class to think about the jobs that the adults in their family have. Have students think about what time they get up to go to work, get to work, stop work, etc. Then ask the students to write, for example, all about their mother's job, in a little booklet. Encourage them to illustrate it nicely. Have confident students talk about the information in their booklet to the class.
- You may want to have the students ask their family members about their jobs at home and then present their findings in the next class.

Materials: Index cards

- Write several scenarios on index cards that are examples of things students do not want to be late for, such as late for school, late for a party, late for a movie.

- Read a card aloud. Have one student volunteer to be late. Have the other students act like they are at the activity. Send the volunteer out of the room and then have him or her come in “late”. Have the group role-play what happens.

21st Century Communication

It is also good to be on time for a party, a movie, a doctor's appointment, or an important meeting, because then you won't miss out and be sad or disappointed.*)

- Have students go to the board as fast as possible and stand by an activity. Students look at their clocks and complete sentence frames, naming the activity on the board and the time on their clocks: I... at... For each sentence, have the class respond with a thumbs-up if the sentence is true, and a thumbs-down if the sentence is silly.

- Continue with other daily activities and clocks.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will review the words and structures of the unit.

- Students will review the words and structures of the unit through a variety of activities that involve writing clock times and using do/does in a sentence when writing about daily activities. Then students will complete the I Can section, which helps them to assess their own learning and reflect on their progress.

Practice 1

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 6, clock times

- Remind students about the song they sang a few lessons before and refer them to the song on the song lesson page.
- Play Audio Track 115, (the song with the lyrics). Have students follow along and join in with the song.
- Once students are familiar again with the song, have them practice it using the karaoke version (Audio Track 116). You could use Flashcards to encourage students to sing other clock times and daily activities that aren't in the song.

Practice 2

22 Look and write. What time is it?

Read the directions aloud. Have students complete the activity independently.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 1:00, 2 3:00, 3 6:00, 4 7:00, 5 10:00, 6 12:00)

Practice 3

23 Circle.

- Instruct students to read each sentence with the two answer choices. Complete the first one as a class. Have students work independently. As needed, help with the reading of the sentences.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 does, 2 do, 3 does, 4 do)

Practice 4 WB p. 63/ act. 19

19 Write the words. Then color the times.

- Read the directions aloud. Explain to the students that they must read the words in the box and use them to complete the sentences. Then color the numbers on the clock using the word box as a key.

Practice 5

24 Write.

- Tell students to write a sentence in response to each question.

MONITOR

Make sure students have given logical answers. Check their vocabulary, spelling, and sentence structure.

Self-assessment

I Can

- This section asks students to assess their own learning and think about their progress. Help students appreciate their progress. Say: The I Can statements show what you have learned in this unit.
- Read the statements aloud. Explain that students should think about how well they know the language in the unit and should color in the stars. They should color three stars if they feel the unit was easy, two stars if they need some help, and one star if the unit was hard and they need more help. Have students work independently.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Toilet paper tube, men's necktie

- Have students role-play a TV interview. Provide a toilet paper tube to use as a pretend microphone, and a tied men's necktie to wear.
- Have one student be a TV reporter. Have that student wear the tie, hold the "microphone," and read the questions in Activity 25 for the interviewee to answer. Have the "reporter" report the answers to the class using the pronouns he and she and correct verbs.

Assessment Pack

- To assess student progress at the end of the unit, have students complete the Unit 6 Unit Test in the Assessment Pack.

Unit 6 79

Warm-up

Materials: Index cards

- Have each student write true and false on index cards.
- Read a series of sentences about a typical school schedule and have students respond, by holding up the appropriate index card, that the sentence is either true or false. For example, say: School starts at 4:00. We eat lunch at 11:30. We have math at 7:00.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will review the words and structures of the unit.
- Students will review the words and structures of the unit through a silly sentences card game to talk about what activities they usually do in a day. Then students will complete the I Can section, which helps them to assess their own learning and reflect on their progress.

Video Drama U 06

- Refer to Video Guide for pre-watching and post-watching activities.

Practice

25 Play the Silly Sentences game. First write times on cards. Then write daily activities on other cards.

- Divide the class into groups of four students. Read the directions aloud.
- Have students write various times on eight cards and daily activities on eight different cards.

Now work in groups. Stack the cards. Take turns. Turn over one card from each stack and read a silly sentence.

- Model how to play the game, showing students how to take turns forming and reading sentences, and indicating whether the sentence is true or silly. Be sure students understand that “silly” is more than just wrong. Something that’s “silly” does not make sense for the situation.

MONITOR

- Circulate, listening for correct vocabulary use, proper pronunciation, and appropriate intonation.

ASSIST

- Model saying sentences correctly and have students repeat after you.

CHALLENGE

- Have these students say complete sentences, such as: We don't eat lunch at nine o'clock, silly! Or We eat lunch at eleven o'clock.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Toilet paper tube, men's necktie

- Have students divide a sheet of drawing paper in half. Each student selects one silly sentence from Activity 35.
- On one half of the paper, have students illustrate the silly sentence, including a wall clock in their drawings. On the other half, have them make a true version of the sentence by changing the time on the clock.
- Have students share with a partner two sentences about their drawings: one silly and one true.

MONITOR

- Walk around, checking that students use correct vocabulary and adapt expressions from the text.

CHALLENGE

- Instead of changing the time on the clock in the second drawing, students can change the drawing to be correct for that time.

Assessment Pack

- Have students use a colored pencil to complete the exercise. They will choose a different color when they check this exercise at the end of the Checkpoint.

MONITOR

Follow the suggestions below to review the key language in the unit. Check to see how well students are able to use the language. Remind students that they will be asked to assess their own abilities. You may wish to review all the language in the checklist first, and then have students complete it, or have students mark the checklist as each language point is reviewed.

21st Century Self-Direction

Warm-up

- Write these words on the board: artist, athlete, teacher. Invite student pairs to create dialogs that use one of these words. Have them share their dialogs with the class. After they finish watching, students should say which of the words they heard in the dialog.

CHALLENGE

Encourage students to make their dialog humorous (a skit) by adding silly lines or using a silly situation. Try to have one or more advanced students in each group to lead this activity.

MONITOR

As students ask and answer questions, listen for proper pronunciation, appropriate intonation, and correct use of language.

ASSIST

Provide students with names for jobs not shown on page 56. Write these sentence frames for students to complete as they talk: I want to be a/an... . I like... .

A. Take turns with a partner. Pick up a card. Continue until you find a matching card. Read your cards aloud.

I want to buy a book.

Is there a bookstore near here?

B. Hold up one card at a time and find it on the map. Ask and answer.

Where's the bookstore?

It's on Main Street.

Warm-up

3 Get set.

- Have students preview the cutouts on page 135. Have students read the cards and discuss the meanings.
- Write up the names of the following places on the board: bank, bus stop, movie theater, computer store, supermarket, train station. Make up sentences about something you want to do at one of these places and have students make up the question: Is there a... near here? For example, say: I want to watch a movie. (Is there a movie theater near here?)
- Read the directions aloud and have them cut out the cards on page 135.

MONITOR

Check that students keep the orange and blue cards in separate piles after they mix them up. This will help them to match the cards more quickly.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the Lesson Objective: Today I will put together what I have learned in Units 4–6.

- Students will complete descriptions of pictures, then ask and answer questions about the pictures.

Practice

4 Go!

A Take turns with a partner. Pick up a card. Continue until you find a matching card. Read your cards aloud.

- Read the directions with students. Say: First, you will pick an orange card. It says what someone wants to do. Then your partner will pick a blue card. It asks if there is a place near here. Read the two cards together to see if they match.
- Model picking two cards that do not match: My mom wants to eat lunch. Is there a bookstore near here? Ask: Why don't these cards match? (Eating lunch and going to a bookstore are not connected.) Then show the card that matches with what mom wants to do. (Is there a restaurant near here?)

MONITOR

Check that students match cards correctly.

CHALLENGE

Have students create additional card sets for the game from orange and blue card. Orange cards should name something that someone wants to do. Blue cards should ask a question whether a particular place is near here. (Refer students to the sentences made up in the Warm-up activity.)

Speaking

B Hold up one card at a time and find it on the map. Ask and answer.

- Read the directions aloud. Invite volunteers to read the speech bubbles and street names aloud. Ask: What places do you see on the map? (train station, bookstore, post office, computer store, gas station, movie theater, restaurant, supermarket)
- Have partners take turns choosing a blue card and finding and naming the location of the place named on the card. Ask: Where's the gas station? (It's on Main Street.)

MONITOR

Check students' vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation as they describe and match cards.

ASSIST

Help students read the map. Ask them to point to the front of each building and then point to the name of the street that building faces.

CHALLENGE

Tell students they can name corners to tell where some places are. Model: Where's the bookstore? It's on the corner of Main Street and Maple Road.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Today I will think again about how well I can use what I have learned in Units 4–6.

- Students will write and draw about themselves. Then they will reassess their ability to use key language for Units 4–6.

Practice

5 Write or draw.

- Read the directions and journal title aloud. Invite volunteers to read the questions aloud.
- Then have students write and/or draw to complete All About Me. Provide additional paper as needed.
- Invite students to share their journal entries.

MONITOR

- Check students' writing for correct use of language.

CHALLENGE

- Encourage students to write complete sentences when they answer each journal question.

Self-assessment 1

6 Think about it.

A Go to page 80. Look and circle again.

- Read the directions aloud.

21st Century Self-Direction

- Have students turn to the “Look and circle” exercise on page 80 and think about each of the categories again. Remind students to take their time to think about each category carefully. Suggest that they look at the reference pages listed as they review their skills.
- Ask students to use a different colored marker or pencil when they revisit the checklist on page 80. This will help them see both sets of circles.
- Students may want to circle the same face icon when they revisit the exercise. Model drawing the second circle outside the first so that both colors are visible, rather than covering up the first circle with the second color.

B Check (✓).

- Read the directions aloud. Say: You will check one box. Students can use the “Look and circle” exercise on page 80 to help them choose a response. If they circled ten to twelve smiling faces, they can start the next unit with confidence. If they circled fewer than ten smiling faces, they should probably check one of the other choices.

Self-assessment 2

7 Rate this Checkpoint. Color.

- Write easy and hard on the board. Say: Something is easy if you can do it without any problems. It's hard if you have trouble doing it. Give students examples of easy and hard activities: It's easy to raise your hand. It's hard to touch the top of a door.
- Write fun and not fun on the board. Say: Something is fun if you really enjoy doing it. Ask students to mime things that are fun to do.
- Read the directions aloud. Point out that they will color only one star in each section. Say: First, you will say if the Checkpoint was easy, OK, or hard. Then you will say if it was fun, OK, or not fun.

Using Checkpoint Evaluations: Student evaluations of the Checkpoint (easy/OK/hard, fun/OK/not fun) can give you insight into students' reactions to classroom activities. Check their answers to help you engage and motivate them as they continue to review Units 4–6 and move on to the next units. Consider whether students require additional assistance, deeper challenges, or more inspiring activities.

Warm-up

Materials: Pictures of food, lunchbox

- Put pictures of food that students have studied in Level 1 (hamburger, salad, grapes) in a lunch bag or lunchbox. Set a clock or clock face to the time your class eats lunch.

- Ask: What time is it? (twelve o'clock) What do we do at twelve o'clock? (We eat lunch.)
- Hold up the lunchbox and ask: What's for lunch? One by one, show each picture and elicit the answer.
- Let volunteers take turns choosing pictures and tell the class what they are going to eat for lunch. Each time ask: What's for lunch?

Lesson Objective

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 7, food

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will learn to name food.

- Use 2–3 Flashcards to remind students what they already know and elicit a few different types of food.
- Students will name and identify different foods.

Song Time

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 7, food

Listen and sing.

- Play the unit song and encourage students to dance and use gestures for engagement and to assess what vocabulary students already know.
- Display the Flashcards as you hear the words come up in the song. The students will only hear the words at this point. They will not see the text of the song.

Presentation

1 Listen, look, and say.

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 000. Have students listen, point at the picture for each matching food, and then repeat it.

MONITOR

Replay the audio and pause after each word while students repeat it several times. Listen for proper pronunciation and appropriate intonation. Ask students to repeat each word after you, if necessary.

ASSIST

Replay the audio as needed.

1 Look and match.

- Read the directions aloud. Have students read the food words and match to the pictures. Guide students through Item 1.
- Have students work independently, and then compare answers with a partner.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class.

Game

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 7, food, bag or basket

2 Play the memory game.

- When students are familiar with the vocabulary, play a memory game with the whole class as follows: Sit in a circle and say: I went to the supermarket and bought apples. Show the Flashcard for apples and put it in a bag or basket. Have the class repeat apples after you (or the whole sentence if you think they can manage it).

Then say: I went to the supermarket and bought apples and bananas and put the bananas Flashcard in the bag or basket. Have the class remember apples and repeat bananas after you (or the whole sentence). Continue until you have put several or all of the Flashcards into the bag or basket.

MONITOR

Check that students can read and pronounce words correctly.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to name food.

- Encourage awareness of what students have learnt by quickly eliciting from a few students the names of different types of foods.

Think BIG

21st Century Collaboration

- Read the questions aloud, and have students discuss in small groups.
- Ask students to report back to the class on what their group likes to eat for lunch and what vegetables their group likes.

Categorizing: Categorizing, or grouping, helps students to organize and better understand information. Food vocabulary lends itself to categorizing or sorting. For example, students can sort food items by food groups, colors or those foods students like or dislike.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to ask and answer about food.

name the room where the characters are and describe furniture or objects they recognize in it. Explain that in this story, Jamie's dad is offering the two boys a snack.

- Teach students about the concept of groups or categories. Write the word fruit on the board and underline it. Elicit names of fruit from the students and write a few on the board under the heading. ASSIST

Read the story again, frame by frame. After each relevant frame, read the question from the activity. For example, after reading Frame 2, say: 1. Does Dan like fruit? Tell students to nod their heads and say: Yes if the answer is yes, and to shake their heads and say: No if the answer is no. Continue with the rest of the story, stopping to ask questions about each frame.

Comprehension 3 WB p. 68/ act. 5

Content Connection Lesson

Lesson Flow

Lesson Objective

I will learn about healthy and unhealthy food.

Key Language

candy, energy, fat, heart disease, label, potato chips, salt, snack, sugar, too much

Content Connection | Science

I will learn about healthy and unhealthy food.

14 Look at the pictures. Which snacks can you name?
15 Look, listen, and read. Then circle.

Healthy and Unhealthy Snacks

Healthy food is good for our body. Some snacks are healthy, but others are not. Unhealthy snacks have too much sugar, fat, or salt.

Sugar

1 Sugar gives us energy, but too much sugar is not healthy. Sugar is bad for our teeth and can make us fatter. Candy has a lot of sugar.

Fat

2 Like sugar, fat gives us energy. When we eat too much of it, it stays in our body and makes us fatter. It is not good for our heart. Chocolate has a lot of fat.

Salt

3 Salt doesn't make us fatter, but too much of it can give us heart disease. Potato chips have a lot of salt.

Many snacks have labels. The labels say how much sugar, fat, and salt is in them. Try to read the labels and choose healthy snacks.

1 candy: a lot of sugar / salt
2 chocolate: a lot of fat / salt
3 potato chips: a lot of sugar / salt

THINK BIG Which snacks in the pictures are healthy? Which are unhealthy?

90 Unit 7

Warm-up

- Play I Can Spell (Hangman) with students. (See Game Bank, page T135, for details.)
- Divide the class into two teams. Draw lines on the board for the number of letters in the name of a fruit from the unit. Have players on each team take turns guessing letters in the word.

- The first team to guess the fruit before the whole hangman is drawn gets one point.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn about healthy and unhealthy food.

- Students will learn about healthy and unhealthy snacks and about the sugar, fat, and salt in them. They will also make a poster.

Pre-reading

14 Look at the pictures. Which snacks can you name?

- Read the directions aloud. Have students look at the pictures of snacks below in Activity 15. Elicit and help them name the snacks. Model the pronunciation and have students repeat. (Answers: candy, cookies, apple, potato chips, vegetables, sandwich, chocolate)

Reading

15 Look, listen, and read. Then circle.

- Read the title aloud and write the words healthy and unhealthy on the board. Help students sort the snacks from the page into healthy and unhealthy snacks to explain the meaning of the words.
- Read the directions aloud and encourage students to say what the text might be about.
- Play Audio Track 143 and have students follow along in their books. Replay the audio and pause after each paragraph to check for understanding. Draw students' attention to the subheadings. Say and have them repeat.
- Draw students' attention to the text below the main text box. Write a lot of on the board and explain the meaning. Explain that they must use the information they have just read to circle the correct words. Have students complete the activity independently.

MONITOR

Check students are circling the correct words and assist if necessary. Check answers as a class, inviting students to read their answers aloud. (Answers: sugar, fat, salt)

Refer students back to the text above to check their answers.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class.

Speaking

- As a class, complete the chart with a ✓ or a ✗ according to whether each snack has a lot of sugar, a lot of fat, or a lot of salt.
- Write on the board: Do apples have a lot of fat? No, they don't. Model the conversation and have students repeat. Model other questions and help students find the answers using the chart.
- In pairs, have students make questions and answers using the chart and the model conversation.

1 Sugar gives us energy, but too much sugar is not healthy. Sugar is bad for our teeth and can make us fatter. Candy has a lot of sugar.

Fat

2 Like sugar, fat gives us energy. When we eat too much of it, it stays in our body and makes us fatter. It is not good for our heart. Chocolate has a lot of fat.

Salt

3 Salt doesn't make us fatter, but too much of it can give us heart disease. Potato chips have a lot of salt.

Many snacks have labels. The labels say how much sugar, fat, and salt is in them. Try to read the labels and choose healthy snacks.

- 1 candy: a lot of sugar / salt
- 2 chocolate: a lot of fat / salt
- 3 potato chips: a lot of sugar / salt

Warm-up

Materials: World map or globe

- Have students tell you the names of the food they see or recognize in the pictures, and write them on the board. Ask them if they know where the different types of fruit come from. Elicit some answers and discuss them as a group. Write the names of the countries included in the reading on the board and show their location on the map or globe.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn about different fruit from around the world.
- Students will read about different types of fruit and where it comes from.

Pre-listening

16 Look at the pictures. Which fruit do you like to eat?

- Read the directions aloud and tell students that they will read about where fruit comes from.
- Point out the question: Which fruit do you like to eat? Ask students about their favorite fruit, how often they eat it and if they know where it comes from. Discuss their answers as a class.
- Draw students' attention to the words in the Content Words box. Explain, draw, or mime any new words.

Listening

17 Listen and read. Then match.

- Play Audio Track 145, and have students follow in their books as they listen. Help them with any unfamiliar words.
- With books closed, elicit the names of the fruit mentioned and write them on the board. Invite students to read the name of each fruit and to say where they come from.
- Invite four volunteers to read aloud the paragraphs to the rest of the class.
- Ask students to read the text again and match the fruit to the countries they come from.

MONITOR

Walk around and check they are matching correctly. Invite volunteers to read aloud their answers to the rest of the class. (Answers: 1 c, 2 a, 3 d, 4 b)

CHALLENGE

Form pairs, with an advanced and a beginner student working together. Have the advanced students read one of the paragraphs first and then ask the beginner student to do the same. Encourage them to help each other.

Practice

- As a class, brainstorm ways to describe the fruits and add new words to the board. (Possible answers: Kiwis are green. Watermelons are round or square.)
- Make a sentence using the words on the board and invite students to say if the sentence is true or false. (for example, Avocados come from China. False. Watermelons are pink and green. True.)
- Invite volunteers to make a sentence using the notes on the board and have other students say if the sentence is true or false. If the sentence is false, encourage students to correct the sentence.

ASSIST

Refer students back to the paragraphs in Activity 16 to help them decide if the sentences are true or false.

My Classroom Bulletin Board

Make a large Venn diagram on a bulletin board. Have each student draw his/her favorite animal. Choose two animal characteristics, such as long neck and four legs. Write them on the diagram. Help students place their animal pictures in the appropriate circle in the diagram. Talk about which animals are alike and which are different. Continue with other animal characteristics.

Warm-up

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 8, animals

- Tell students to each draw a picture of a wild animal. Allow them to draw any animal they think is wild.
- Display the Flashcards. Hold up each Flashcard, write the animal's name in a list on the board, and identify the animal. Have students hold up their picture if they drew that animal and repeat the animal's name. Count how many students drew each animal and write the number by the animal's name on the board.
- Identify any other animals students drew and add them to the list, as well as the number of times it was drawn.
- Use the list on the board to identify the most popular animal drawn.

Vocabulary Reinforcement: If possible, show pictures and/or video clips of wild animals in their natural habitats (available on the Internet) as students study the animals to facilitate interest, vocabulary reinforcement, and language development.

Lesson Objective

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 8, animals

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will learn to name animals.

- Use 2–3 Flashcards to remind students what they know and elicit a few names of animals.
- Students will name and identify different animals.

Song Time

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 8, animals

Listen and sing.

- Play the unit song and encourage students to dance and use gestures for engagement and to assess what vocabulary students already know.
- Display the Flashcards as you hear the words come up in the song. The students will only hear the words at this point. They will not see the text of the song.

Presentation

1 Listen, look, and say.

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 153. Have students listen, point at the picture for each matching animal, and then repeat it.

2 Play the acting game.

- When students are familiar with the vocabulary, play a game of Charades with the class. (See Game Bank, page T134, for details.) Ask a volunteer to mime the movements and/or sounds of a particular wild animal, and have the others guess what it is. Repeat until everyone has had a chance to mime an animal.

MONITOR

Check that students can pronounce animal names correctly. Also listen for correct pronunciation and appropriate intonation as they guess each animal. Students can also play the game in groups while you go around and check their understanding and language.

Unit 8 97

Warm-up

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 8, animals

- Play I Can Spell (Hangman) using the Flashcards. (See Game Bank, page T135, for details.)
- Divide the class into groups and give them a piece of paper and pencil.

- Have a representative from each group come to the front. Show the representatives a Flashcard. The representatives then go back to their groups and, without speaking, draw a line for each letter of the word. Their teammates try to guess what the word is by guessing each letter. If they guess a letter correctly, the letter is written on the correct line. If not, a part of the "hangman" is drawn. The teammate who guesses the word correctly comes to the front and becomes the new team representative. Continue until most students have had a chance to be a team representative.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Speaking

5 Look at 1. Ask and answer.

- Read the directions aloud. Read the speech bubbles aloud while students follow in their books. Have students repeat the dialog and point at the matching picture in Activity 1.
- Ask volunteers to model the dialog. Have students work in pairs to ask and answer about what animals they like. Instruct students to use the format of the dialog, using the sentence frames Do you like... ? Yes, I do... can... . Have students also answer in the negative, as follows: No, I don't... can't... .

MONITOR

Listen for proper pronunciation, appropriate intonation, and correct vocabulary.

Warm-up

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 8, animals

- Display the Flashcards. Then play a guessing game with students about the animals. For clues, describe things each animal can do, e.g. This animal can climb trees and jump. (a monkey) This animal can swim and chase other animals. (a crocodile) This animal can fly. (a parrot) Use gestures to help students understand the meaning of unknown words. Accept all reasonable answers students provide for each clue.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will read a story about animals.
- Students will listen to and read a story, answer a question about it, and discuss ideas related to it.

Pre-reading

- Point at and read the story title aloud. Have students repeat after you. Have them look at the story frames and discuss what they see. Ask: Who are these two people? (Jamie and Jenny) Where are they? (the zoo) How do you know? (There is a sign. There are wild animals.) Explain that this story is about the two twins who are visiting a zoo. They are talking about which animals they like.
- Help students understand the expression like I can (see Frame 6). Invite a volunteer to the front of the classroom. Say: Listen. Clap your hands using an interesting rhythm. Say: Can you clap like I can? The volunteer claps his or her hands. Say: (Billy) can clap like I can. We clap alike. Repeat with another activity, such as snapping your fingers or whistling.

Reading

6 Listen and read. What animals does Jamie like?

- Read the directions aloud. Draw attention to the question: What animals does Jamie like? Play Audio Track 158. Have students listen and read along silently.

Comprehension 1

MONITOR

Ask comprehension questions about the story, e.g. What is Jenny's favorite animal? (monkeys) What can monkeys do? (They can climb trees and jump.) What is Jamie's favorite animal? (hippos) What does a hippo have? (a big mouth) How are Jamie and the hippo alike? (They can eat a lot of food.) Encourage students to answer in complete sentences.

Animal Habitats

The forest is a cool, dark habitat with a lot of trees. Deer, raccoons, and foxes live there. Forests cover 18% / 28% of the planet.

6% / 60% of our planet is desert. It's hot in the day and cold at night. There isn't much rain, so it's very dry, and there aren't many plants. Lizards and snakes live there.

The ocean covers 21% / 71% of our planet, and the water in it is salty. Many kinds of fish live in the ocean. Other animals live there, too, like whales and seals.

It's hot in the jungle, and it rains a lot. Monkeys, colorful birds, and butterflies live there. There are tigers, too! The jungle covers only 2% / 12% of the planet, but 50% of all plant and animal species live there.

- Divide students into four groups. Give each group a habitat: desert, forest, ocean, and jungle. Provide each group with nonfiction books and pictures of their given habitat.
- Have each group look through the materials, paying close attention to what the habitat looks like. Then provide each group with poster paper and markers or paints, and have them make a mural of the habitat. Tell them not to put animals in their murals. Have them title their murals and display them at student eye level in the classroom.
- Have each group describe their mural for the class.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

Model how to play by saying: I spy with my little eye... and then give a description of an animal you see on a poster, such as something that starts with /s/ and lives in deserts. (snake) Students guess what you see. You can add additional clues, such as something that can climb trees.
- Have students take turns giving clues to other animals they can see on the mural.

I will learn about where animals live.

Animal Habitats

A habitat is the place where an animal lives.

The forest is a cool, dark habitat with a lot of trees. Deer, raccoons, and foxes live there. Forests cover ¹ 8% / 28% of the planet.

² 6% / 60% of our planet is desert. It's hot in the day and cold at night. There isn't much rain, so it's very dry, and there aren't many plants. Lizards and snakes live there.

The ocean covers ³ 21% / 71% of our planet, and the water in it is salty. Many kinds of fish live in the ocean. Other animals live there, too, like whales and seals.

It's hot in the jungle, and it rains a lot. Monkeys, colorful birds, and butterflies live there. There are tigers, too! The jungle covers only ⁴ 2% / 12% of the planet, but 50% of all plant and animal species live there.

Which animal habitats are in your country? Which animals live there?

I will learn about helping animals around the world.

Look, listen, and read. Then match and write 1–3.

They live in the jungle.

They live in a camp.

People Helping Animals

Do you like animals? Around the world, people are helping animals.

Helping Elephants in Myanmar

In Myanmar, you can visit old elephants. These elephants work for a long time. They help carry trees. When they are old, they can't work. Some come to a special camp. You can visit the elephants here. You can feed them and give them a bath.

Helping Horses in Canada

In Canada, some people help horses. These horses are sometimes old. Some are sick or hurt. Some don't have a home. At special farms, the horses can live in a clean, safe place. Vets come and take care of them.

Helping Chimpanzees in Kenya

In Kenya, you can see chimpanzees at a special place in the jungle. Some of the animals come here because they don't have a mother or father. Others are hurt. The chimpanzees have a good home here. People can visit and learn more about them.

Unit 8 103

Warm-up

Materials: World map or globe

- Play a game of Pictionary with animal words the students know already (e.g. elephant).

21st Century Global Awareness

- Write on the board the names of the three countries from the reading text. (Myanmar, Canada, and Kenya) Point at the countries on the world map or globe, and ask students what they know about these countries. Elicit information.

- Ask students: What is the weather like here? (e.g. In Kenya it is very hot.) What geographical features are in these countries? (e.g. There is a desert in Kenya.) To extend discussion for more able groups, ask what they think challenges for animals living in these countries are.

- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Say: Today I will learn about people helping animals around the world.

- Students will read about people who help animals in different countries, and discuss it.

Pre-reading

- Have students look at the pictures on the page. Invite students to point at and name the animals. Provide names if necessary and have students repeat. (Answers: elephants, horses, chimpanzees) Write the words camp, farm, feed, hurt, and jungle on the board. Explain, draw, or mime the words.
- Invite students to predict what the text is about.

Reading

16 Look, listen, and read. Then match and write 1–3.

- Read the directions aloud. Draw students' attention to the three main paragraphs. Explain that they are going to read and find out how people help animals around the world.
- Play Audio Track 165. Students listen and follow the text.
- Replay the audio, pausing after each section for students to match with the correct sentence.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 They live in a camp. 2 They live on a farm. 3 They live in the jungle.)

Comprehension

- Ask questions to check students' understanding. Ask: What animals can you visit in Myanmar? (Elephants) What can you do with elephants at the special camp? (Visit them, feed them, give them a bath) Where is a safe place for horses? (At special farms in Canada.) Who takes care of the horses? (Vets) Why are some chimpanzees at the special place in Kenya? (Because some don't have a mother or father, or are hurt.)

Think BIG

21st Century Digital Literacy

- Discuss the questions as a class. Encourage students to give simple answers in English. Put students into pairs to investigate an animal that needs help (e.g. giant panda from China) using the Internet. They should find out what they eat, where they are from, and how people look after them. Students can then work in small groups to make a poster about the animal using the information they have found out.

Alternatively, students can use a simple word processing program (such as Microsoft Word) to write a short paragraph about the animal, and either paste a picture of the animal into the document, or draw an animal onto the printed document.

As an extension, the posters could be stuck onto the appropriate country on a large map of the world, to display in class.

Video

Documentary U 08

- Refer to Video Guide for pre-watching and post-watching activities.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned about people helping animals around the world.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly eliciting a few ways people help animals.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Rulers for each student

- Have students make their own crossword about different animals around the world. Elicit all the animals the students know and write them on the board. Ensure they're including animals from this lesson, plus any other endangered animals, and animals from other countries. Check understanding of what a crossword puzzle is with the class. (For less able groups, you might want to use a wordsearch puzzle for this activity instead.) Draw a simple grid with one word down and one word across. Write simple clues below, e.g. 1 across: Very big, live in Myanmar and India (answer: elephants). For more able groups, encourage them to write full sentences, e.g. 1 across: These are big animals, with large ears and a trunk. They live in Myanmar and India.
- Give students paper and rulers to create their own crosswords. Remind them that they should not write the answers in the grid. Once they have finished their grid and clues, students swap with a partner and do their partner's crossword.

Explain that students will ask and answer questions that describe animals.

- Read the directions aloud. Pair students and read Step 1 aloud. Have one student in each pair write the animal's name.
- Then read Step 2 aloud. Have volunteers read aloud the sample dialog.
- Have pairs play one round of the game.
- Read Step 3 aloud. Have partners switch roles and play again.
- Have students switch and play again with different partners.

MONITOR

Go around checking that students are using correct vocabulary, intonation, and grammar. Also check sticky notes for correct spelling.

ASSIST

On the board, brainstorm a list of animals students know about. Allow students to refer to the list as they play the game. Provide pictures of the animal on the sticky note, to help students answer the questions

Self-assessment

I Can

- This section asks students to assess their own learning and think about their progress. Help students appreciate their progress. Say: The I Can statements show what you have learned in this unit.
- Read the statement aloud. Explain that students should think about how well they know the language in the unit and should color in the stars. They should color three stars if they feel the unit was easy, two stars if they need some help, and one star if the unit was hard and they need more help. Have students work independently.

Suggestions for Remediation

Assessment Pack

- Direct students who need help with grammar and vocabulary to the Unit 1 Practice Tests in the Assessment Pack.

WB Unit 8/p. 105

- Direct students who need help with grammar to the Unit 8 Extra Grammar Practice (Workbook, page 105).
- For further vocabulary work, students can access games in the Big English Student World.

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 8, animals

- Have each student write the name of one of the animals from the What Animal Am I? game on card. Punch holes in the upper two corners and have the student put a piece of string or wool through the two holes and knot it to make a name tag. Have students hang their name tags around their necks.
- Mark a spot at the front of the classroom with a big chair. Play lively music and have an animal parade around the classroom. Instruct students to move like the animal on their name tag ("giraffe" taking long strides, "parrot" flapping arms, etc.). Periodically, stop the music. Whichever student is near the chair must sit in it, name his or her animal, and tell you one thing about the animal.
- Continue stopping and starting the music and parade until everyone has had a turn in the chair.

MONITOR

Listen to make sure that students use correct vocabulary, proper pronunciation, and appropriate intonation.

ASSIST

Have students say correct and incorrect statements about the animal, e.g. A polar bear can fly, or Crocodiles can swim. Have the class respond appropriately, e.g. No, it can't, or Yes, they can. If the statement is incorrect, have a volunteer correct it.

Assessment Pack

- To assess whether students have reached the listening and speaking targets for this unit, carry out the Unit 8 Oral Assessment in the Assessment Pack.
- Arrange one-to-one sessions with each student and use the prompts to evaluate their listening and speaking abilities.

108 Unit 9

Warm-up

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 9, months of the year

- Give each Flashcard to a different student (or pair or small group of students).
- Have students identify the months in order by giving clues, such as: This month starts with J. It's got seven letters. (January) Have the student holding the January card stand up and form the start of a line. Help students to say the name, January. Repeat until all the months have been identified and named in order.
- Once the line of "months" is formed, provide students with additional practice in identifying and naming the months by giving clues, such as: This month starts with J. It's between May and July. (June)

Lesson Objective

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 9, months of the year

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will learn to name the months of the year.
- Use 2–3 Flashcards to remind students what they already know and elicit a few names of months of the year.
- Students will name and identify the months of the year.

Song Time

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 9, months of the year

Listen and sing.

- Play the unit song and encourage students to dance and use gestures for engagement and to assess what vocabulary students already know.
- Display the Flashcards as you hear the words come up in the song. The students will only hear the words at this point. They will not see the text of the song.

Presentation

1 Listen, look, and say.

INVOLVE

- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 174 as students listen, point at each calendar, and then repeat the name of the month.

MONITOR

- Replay the audio and pause after each month while students repeat it several times. Listen for proper pronunciation and appropriate intonation. Ask students to repeat the name of each month after you if necessary.

ASSIST

- Have students read or say a name of a month as you point at the calendars. Sometimes, point at the wrong calendar and have students correct you.

Practice

WB p. 86/ act. 1

1 Number the months in order.

- Read the directions aloud. Have students look at the months of the year and number them in order. Walk students through Item 1.
- Have students work independently, and then compare answers with a partner.

Game

Materials: Teacher-made word cards

2 Play the ordering game.

- When students are familiar with the months of the year, play a game with the class as follows: Have students close their books and form small groups. Give each group a set of word cards (with the name of a month written on each one) in a random order; ask them to sort the cards in the correct order of the months of the year. The group that does it first is the winner!

MONITOR

- Check that students can read, sort, and say the months of the year in the correct order.

ASSIST

- Put students into mixed ability groups for the game so that stronger language students can help weaker ones complete the activity.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to name the months of the year.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly eliciting from a few students the names of months that they can remember.

Homework

WB p. 86/ act. 2

2 Read and write the months.

- Direct students to WB Activity 2 on page 86. Read the directions. Explain to the students that they must read the clue sentences and write the month in the blanks.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

- Have students sit in a circle. Write the name of a month on the board, e.g. May.
- Going around the circle, have each student say the name of a month in order. Student 1: January. Student 2: February, and so on. When it gets to Student 5, who will say May, the student stands and receives one point.
- Erase May from the board and write a different month. Begin again with Student 6 saying: January and continuing around the circle. Increase the pace of the game to encourage automaticity.

Materials: Pair of dice

- Play a game that reviews the months of the year. Divide the class into two teams. Have one student from each team come to the front. Give each student one die. Say: Roll! Both students roll the dice in a designated area.

- Students use the total on the dice to name a month, e.g. $5 + 5 = 10$, October. Students may consult their teammates for help.

In Spain, people eat twelve grapes at twelve o'clock – one with every chime of the clock. People think that the grapes bring good luck for the next year. Then there are fireworks.

In Scotland, New Year's Eve is called Hogmanay. At midnight, people hold hands and sing a special song about old friends. Then they visit their friends' and family's homes. The first person through the door gives a piece of coal to bring good luck to the family.

In Japan, people eat a special noodle soup on New Year's Eve for good luck. They eat the soup and listen to a bell ring 108 times at midnight. They believe the bell takes away 108 bad things before the New Year.

MONITOR

Check answers as a class.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to use the alphabet.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by saying a few words and quickly eliciting from students the letters from the alphabet that they hear in those words (for example, ink, ant, snake, lion).

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Teacher-made alphabet cards

- Give each student an alphabet card in a random order (used in the Warm-up activity; you may use either the set of capital letters or the lowercase letters).
- Without any talking, have students line up in the order of the alphabet. Explain that they may use gestures or movements but they may not say anything.
- Once the alphabet line is complete, go through it, checking that each letter is in the correct order. This time they may speak.

MONITOR

While students work, check to see that they can recognize and sort the letters of the alphabet in order.

ASSIST

For the silent part of the activity, use gestures (like pointing) to help students work out their order. For the speaking part of the activity, use prompts, such as: Which letter comes after...? Which letter comes next? Which letter is between... and...?

I will learn to use the alphabet.

Warm-up

- Display four sheets of paper. Label each sheet with the name of a season. Ask: What months are in winter? (December, January, February) Write them on the Winter chart. Continue with each season.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will learn to talk about being active all year.
- Students will talk, draw, and write about seasonal activities, and discuss ways to be active all year.

Listening

20 Listen and write the season. Then say.

- Have students look at each picture while you read the activity aloud. Help students to understand the activities depicted through simple language and gestures, as necessary.
- Read the directions aloud. Play Audio Track 189 and have students complete each sentence with the missing word.
- Replay the audio and have students repeat each sentence. Have them read the sentences aloud to a partner afterward, too.

MONITOR

- Read the completed sentences aloud and have students repeat after you. Check answers as a class. (Answers: 1 winter, 2 spring, 3 summer, 4 fall)

Think BIG

21st Century Creative Thinking

- Have students discuss these questions in pairs or small groups first, before having a class discussion. Help them to respond in English as much as possible. (Possible answers: We can only play in the snow in winter because it has to be very cold and snowy. We can only swim at the beach in summer because it has to be very sunny and hot.)

Project

21 Make a Special Days calendar.

Materials: Chart paper, reproduced month template

21st Century Collaboration

- Divide the class into groups and provide each with twelve blank month templates. Direct students to fill in the name of the month and the numbers. Provide this year's calendar to use for reference. Then have students illustrate and label any special days they know of, reminding them to include holidays, festivals, and birthdays. Suggest that students collaborate with each other by dividing the months among members of each group.

- Provide resources such as wall calendars or references to internet sites where students can find additional dates to mark on their calendars.
- Have students display their calendars in the classroom, and compare their calendars with other groups' calendars. Encourage them to discuss any differences they see.

MONITOR

- Check calendars for correct spelling.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Revisit the lesson objective: Now I have learned to talk about being active all year.
- Encourage awareness of what students have learned by quickly eliciting from a few students the words and sentences that they have learned that involve being active all year.

Homework

WB p. 94/ act. 15 & 16

15 Read, Look and match.

- Direct students to WB Activity 15 on page 94. Read the directions aloud. Explain to the students that they need to read the sentences and then match them to the pictures.

16 Find and write the words. Then match each season to the months in your country.

- Direct students to WB Activity 16 on page 94. Read the directions aloud. Explain to the students that they need to unscramble the letters to find the seasons, then match the months.

Extra Application and Practice Activity

Materials: Recording of The Four Seasons by Vivaldi

- Play highlights from each season of The Four Seasons by Antonio Vivaldi (recordings available online or on CD). Identify the season, and have students close their eyes, listen to the music, and imagine doing a seasonal activity.
- Have students tell what they imagined. Model: The last part of "Summer" sounds like a thunderstorm. I imagined sitting inside my living room, drinking hot tea, and looking out the window.

118 Unit 9

Warm-up

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 9, months of the year

- Distribute the Flashcards to twelve students. Then write the months of the year along the bottom of the board, in order, close to the shelf. As you write, leave out April, August, and October.
- Give students a signal and have them place the Flashcards on the shelf to fill in the missing months. (Only students holding April, August, and October will play.)

- Shuffle the Flashcards and redistribute them to students. Repeat the activity. Write the months, leaving out different ones.
- Check answers from the HW in the last lesson.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective. Say: Today I will review the words and structures of the unit.

- Students will review the words and structures of the unit through a variety of activities that involve completing a match activity, and writing about the activities that they do in each season.

Then students will complete the I Can section, which helps them to assess their own learning, and think about their progress.

Practice 1

Materials: Flashcards: Unit 9, months of the year

- Remind students about the song they sang a few lessons before and refer them to the song on the song lesson page.
- Play Audio Track 000, (the song with the lyrics). Have students follow along and join in with the song.
- Once students are familiar again with the song, have them practice it using the karaoke version (Audio Track 000). You could use Flashcards to encourage students to sing other classroom objects that aren't in the song.

Practice 2

22 Look and match.

- Read the directions aloud and then have students point at the different calendar pages as you say the names of the months. Then draw their attention to the symbols below and elicit their meaning.
- Have students draw lines from the calendar pages to the appropriate symbol.

Self-assessment

I Can

- This section asks students to assess their own learning and think about their progress. Help students appreciate their progress. Say: The I Can statements show what you have learned in this unit.

- Read the statements aloud. Explain that students should think about how well they know the language in the unit and should color in the stars. They should color three stars if they feel the unit was easy, two stars if they need some help, and one star if the unit was hard and they need more help. Have students work independently.

- Have students preview the animal cutouts on page 137. Ask: What is each animal called? (cheetah, hippo, elephant, giraffe, zebra, polar bear). Which animal has a trunk? (elephant) Which animals have claws? (cheetah, polar bear) Which animals have tails? (all six of them) Which animal has a pouch? (none of these six animals has a pouch)
- Draw students' attention to the dotted line that divides each animal into two parts. Say: Each animal has a head and a body. What parts do you find on an animal's head? (eyes, ears, mouth, nose, trunk) What parts do you find on the body? (claws, legs, tail)
- Read the directions aloud and have them cut out the cards on page 137.

MONITOR

- Check that students have placed the animal heads in one pile and the bodies in another.

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

- Introduce the Lesson Objective: Today I will put together what I have learned in Units 7–9.
- Students will make and describe funny pictures.

Practice 1

4 Go!

A Put one card from each of your piles together to make a funny animal.

- Read the directions with the class. Say: Your animal will have a head and a body. We want to get funny animals, so if you get a body and head that match, you can pick again.

ASSIST

- Write these sentences on the board to help students describe their animals: My animal has the head of a... .has the body of a... .

Speaking

B Talk about your funny animals. Ask and answer.

- Read the directions aloud. Then have volunteers read the speech bubbles aloud.
- Have partners ask and answer questions about animals.

MONITOR

- Check students' vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation as they ask and answer questions about their animals.

21st Century Communication

Have students explain how they decided what to call their new animal. Model: Since my animal has the head of an elephant and the body of a zebra, I took the first part of the word elephant and the second part of the word zebra. I put them together to get the name elebra.

CHALLENGE

Encourage students to create fact sheets about their animals. Ask: Where does your animal live? What does it eat? How big is it? Allow students to share their information with the class.

Creating a Mixed-Up Animal: Challenge students to make up their own mixed-up animals. Each animal should have the head of one animal and the body of another. Students can begin by brainstorming a list of possible animals to mix and match. Say: Draw a picture and write a description of your new animal. Don't forget to give the animal a name!

Practice 2

C Look at others' animals. Who has the same animal as you?

- Read the directions aloud. Have students who have the same animal compare the names they gave their animals. Ask: Does anyone have an animal that's the opposite of your animal? My animal has the head of an elephant and the body of a zebra. Does anyone have an animal with the head of a zebra and the body of an elephant?

Warm-up

Materials: Box or bag, Flashcards: Unit 9, months of the year

- Place the Flashcards in a box or bag. Have students take turns picking a Flashcard. Ask: What do you always do in this month? What do you never do in this month?

Lesson Objective

INVOLVE

Introduce the lesson objective: Today I will think again about how well I can use what I have learned in Units 7–9.

- Students will write and draw about themselves. Then they will reassess their ability to use key language for Units 7–9.

Practice

5 Write or draw.

- Read the directions and journal title aloud. Invite volunteers to read the questions aloud.
- Then have students write and/or draw to complete All About Me. Provide additional paper as needed.
- Invite students to share their journal entries.

MONITOR

Check students' writing for correct use of language.

CHALLENGE

Encourage students to write complete sentences when they answer each journal question.

Self-assessment 1

6 Think about it.

A Go to page 120. Look and circle again.

- Read the directions aloud.

21st Century Self-Direction

- Have students turn to the “Look and circle” exercise on page 120 and think about each of the categories again. Remind students to take their time to think about each category carefully. Suggest that they look at the reference pages listed as they review their skills.
- Ask students to use a different colored marker or pencil when they revisit the checklist on page 120. This will help them see both sets of circles.
- Students may want to circle the same face icon when they revisit the exercise. Model drawing the second circle outside the first so that both colors are visible, rather than covering up the first circle with the second color.

B Check (✓).

- Read the directions aloud. Say: You will check one box. Students can use the “Look and circle” exercise on page 120 to help them choose a response. If they circled ten to twelve smiling faces, they can start the next unit with confidence. If they circled fewer than ten smiling faces, they should probably check one of the other choices.

Self-assessment 2

7 Rate this Checkpoint. Color.

- Write easy and hard on the board. Say: Something is easy if you can do it without any problems. It's hard if you have trouble doing it. Give students examples of easy and hard activities: It's easy to raise your hand. It's hard to touch the top of a door.
- Write fun and not fun on the board. Say: Something is fun if you really enjoy doing it. Ask students to mime things that are fun to do.
- Read the directions aloud. Point out that they will color only one star in each section. Say: First, you will say if the Checkpoint was easy, OK, or hard. Then you will say if it was fun, OK, or not fun.

Using Checkpoint Evaluations: Student evaluations of the Checkpoint (easy/OK/hard, fun/OK/not fun) can give you insight into students' reactions to classroom activities. Check their answers to help you engage and motivate them as they continue to review Units 7–9. Consider whether students require additional assistance, deeper challenges, or more inspiring activities.

Listening A

In this part, students listen for information and then check the correct picture.

Do the test

- 1 Ask students to turn to pages 124–125. Read the questions aloud and make sure students understand what they mean.
- 2 Ask students to look at the pictures and guess what each dialog will be about. If there are people in the pictures, students could guess how they are related or connected (They are family; They are friends; They are classmates; etc.) and what they are saying.
- 3 Check that students know the names of the places and objects shown. Teach any unfamiliar words as necessary.
- 4 Read the directions aloud, then play the first part of the recording. Go through the example.
- 5 Play the rest of the recording. While they listen, students check the box below the illustration that correctly answers the question.
- 6 Let students listen to the recording again. Check answers. Ask students to describe one or two of the pictures.

Audio Script

Reading & Writing A

In this part, students look at a picture, read a sentence about the picture, and then put a check or a cross depending on whether the sentence is true or false.

Do the test

- 1 Ask students to turn to pages 128–129. Read the directions aloud.
- 2 Write the example sentences on the board. Underline the key word in each, e.g. doctor, bus stop. Ask students to correct the second example sentence, e.g. This is a restaurant.
- 3 Students underline the key word in the rest of the sentences and decide if the sentences are correct or not.
- 4 Ask students to compare answers in pairs.
- 5 Check answers. Students correct the false sentences. (1 This is a grocery store. 3 He is a pilot. 4 This is a train station.)

130 Reading & Writing B

Reading & Writing B

In this part, students reorder letters and write words.

Do the test

- 1 Ask students to turn to page 130. Read the directions aloud. Explain that each dash represents a letter and that the pictures should help them.
- 2 Write the example on the board. Write both the jumbled letters and the word spelled correctly.
- 3 Give students some time to unscramble the rest of the jumbled words. Encourage them to cross out letters as they write the word, to help them keep track of which letters they have used. Remind them to write only one letter in each space.
- 4 Ask students to compare answers in pairs.
- 5 Check that students have spelled the words correctly.

– 5 questions –

Read. Choose a word from the box. Write the correct word next to numbers 1–5. There is one example.

Zoos are big places. A lot of animals live there. The elephant has big ears and a long trunk. The (1) peacock is a bird with a beautiful tail. The (2) toucan is another beautiful bird. It likes to talk. Then there are (3) monkeys. They have long tails and live in trees. The (4) hippo is a large, gray animal with small ears. It likes the water. And the (5) giraffe has a long neck and spots.

Reading & Writing C 131

Reading & Writing C

In this part, students read a text and complete it with the missing words.

Do the test

- 1 Ask students to turn to page 131. Read the directions aloud. Ask them to say what the text is about. The picture and title at the top will help them.
- 2 Discuss the example together. Ask them to cross out the word and picture in the box that was used in the example.
- 3 Give students some time to read the text carefully and to try to choose the best word from the box for each blank space. Tell them to read the whole sentence before deciding on the best word for a blank space.
- 4 Ask students to compare answers in pairs.
- 5 Check answers.

132 Speaking

Speaking

In this part, students answer questions about the scene in the picture.

Do the test

- 1 Ask students to turn to page 132. Tell students that you are going to talk about the picture.
- 2 Ask students questions about the scene. Create questions that can be answered with single words, phrases, and simple sentences. Examples:
Are they outside? (yes)
Is there a train station next to the post office? (No, there's a bus station.)
How many animals do you see? (five)
What is the girl with the orange T-shirt doing? (She's skateboarding.)
Is the man with the cap holding a lizard? (No, he's holding a snake.)
- 3 Choose an object in the picture and ask students to tell you about it.
Tell me about...

Game Bank

Games are a great way for children to practice, correct, confirm, and reinforce their vocabulary, usage, and numerical skills. Help everyone in class enjoy game time by creating an environment where the competitive aspect is challenging and motivating while remaining stress-free. Model supportive, friendly reactions when children make mistakes or don't know certain vocabulary words or just need more time than others to express the answer, such as Nice try! and You're getting much quicker!

Flashcard Games

That's It! Clap, Clap!

Write a word on the board or say a word from a specific group of related Flashcards. Then hold up several Flashcards one by one. When the children see the card that corresponds to the word you showed them or told them, they show their recognition by two quick claps (or by shouting That's it! and clapping twice).

Yes or No

With the whole class, review a related set of Flashcards. Encourage everyone to say the words aloud with you. Then mix up the cards (without looking) so they are in a different order. Pick a card without looking at it and hold it over your head with the picture facing the class. You try to guess which card you are holding by saying words from the lexical set. If you guess right, children shout Yes! If you guess wrong, they shout No! and you keep guessing words from the same set.

Go Fish

Divide the class into small groups. For each group, use two sets of Flashcards. Mix up the cards and deal out five cards to each student. Put the rest in a pile in the center. Model how to play by asking: Do you have any words that begin with r? Do you have any words that end with l? You may have students vary the questions about the cards using a particular category, such as beginning letter, ending letter, color, etc. If another player in the group has a card that matches what the student is asking for, he/she hands it to the player and that player puts his match down. If not, he/she says Go fish! and the player takes a Flashcard from the pile in the center. The game is over when one player has no more cards.

Flashcard Challenge

Divide at least 20 Flashcards into two stacks: "easy" words and "difficult" words. Divide the class into two teams. Teams alternate turns, and on both teams each child gets a turn. For each turn, the individual child gets to choose whether to be shown an "easy" card, worth two points, or a "difficult" card, worth five points. The points are always earned for the team. Show the card. If the child cannot say the word for the Flashcard, there is no penalty, but the team doesn't get any points for that turn. The team with the most points at the end wins.

Vocabulary and Word Games

Follow the Leader

Lead students in a game of Follow the Leader around the classroom, performing or miming certain actions or putting things in certain locations around the room. For example, lead them to the classroom library and shelve one book. As you do so, say: I'm putting a book on the shelf. Each follower, in turn, puts a book away and repeats the sentence. Continue around the classroom, doing other actions.

I Spy (or I See, I See)

Look around the room and say: I spy with my little eye (or I see, I see . . .) something beginning with b (or whatever letter you choose). Students guess the object you are thinking of. You can also play the game using colors.

Pictionary and Charades

Divide the class into two teams. On index cards write vocabulary words, important phrases, or the names of stories or movies the class has read or seen. A child from Team A picks a card from the pile and draws a picture of the word/phrase/title on the board (Pictionary) or acts out the word/phrase/title (Charades) for his/her teammates to guess. If the team guesses correctly (they can make several tries, or you can set a time limit), they win a point. Then Team B takes a turn.

Question Chain

Divide students into groups. Have each group sit in a circle. Select one of the groups to model the game. Start the game by asking the first student a question that reviews a particular vocabulary group – for example, What's your favorite [zoo animal]? The first student answers: I like [cheetahs]. The first student then turns and asks the question to the next student. Continue around the group until all students have answered the question. You may want to write a list of questions on the board so that students can continue the game by doing a round with each question without interrupting the activity. You can play the game in other variations, too (e.g. Statement Chain).

Ready, Set, Go!

Write a single letter on the board, or hold it up on a big card so that everyone can see it. Shout Ready, Set, Go! and when children hear Go! they start writing as many words as they can think of that begin with this letter. When you shout Stop! they put their pencils down. Children get one point for every word they've written.

Simon Says

In this game, students do as you command provided you begin the instruction with Simon Says. For example, if you say: Simon Says touch your nose, students touch their nose. If you say: Touch your ears, students do not move since you didn't precede the command with Simon Says. If desired, have students sit down if they mistakenly do a task when you didn't say Simon Says. The last student standing is the winner.

Bingo

Give each student a blank grid divided into nine squares, plus a small number of items such as beans or pennies. Have students write nine numbers (from 1–20) on the card – one in each square, in no particular order. Call out numbers (from 1–20) randomly. If a student has a number on his/her card, he/she places one of the beans (or other small item) on the square. The first person with three items in a row is the winner. This game can be played using letters or other vocabulary words.

Phonics and Spelling Games

Cheerleader Game

Choose words to spell out as if they were cheers and write them on cards. Start by leading the "cheer" yourself. Choose easy words to begin with (e.g. cow, ball) and move on to more difficult words. For example, with cow, you say, Give me a C! and the class responds, C! Then you call the second letter and so on. When you finish spelling, ask: What word is it? Students answer as a chorus. As children get used to the game, invite children to take on your role.

I Can Spell (Hangman)

Write the letters of the alphabet on the board. Choose a word (e.g. jumping) and write letter spaces on the board (7 short lines). Elicit a letter from an individual. If the letter is in the word, write it on the correct line. If not, then start to draw a person, one part at a time. Explain that the word needs to be guessed before the person is fully drawn. As students guess, cross out the letters on the board. Once students are comfortable with the game, you can invite an individual to choose a word and lead the game.

Memory Game

Sit with the whole class in a circle. You start by saying a sentence like: I went to Mars and I took my camera. The student on your right repeats your information and adds his/her own: She went to Mars and she took her camera. I took my backpack. Continue with the next student, in order, until a student can't remember the whole list. Start the game again with the next student.

Phonics Race

Divide the class into groups. Call out a letter-sound and give one example (e.g. a as in cat; double o as in book). Start a timer and have teams list as many words as they can with that sound. When you call Stop! teams read their words aloud and receive one point for each correct word. The game can also be played orally. Have one team play at a time and say words aloud instead of writing them. Keep a tally on the board. The team that comes up with the most words in the allotted time is the winner.
